'No' to container café

By Harry Walton

hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

PLANNERS have delighted residents by throwing out a scheme to create a café in a converted shipping container on Weymouth's cargo stage.

Applicant David Bennett said the container would be clad in natural materials to create a retail unit which would be an "exciting new food concept for Weymouth".

He told a meeting of Weymouth & Portland planning committee that street food was the new hot topic in food retailing, that the unit's design would not be "cheap and tacky" but would blend in with its surroundings and that new and exciting concepts like this were needed in Weymouth.

There were supporters for the scheme and Councillor Paul Kimber said: "If we don't try something we will never know."

He added that the harbour had now lost Condor and was moving into another era, "the leisure era," and he was happy to support the scheme but only with a three-year permission.

Councillor Kevin Brookes went further and suggested five years "to give the operator a chance," adding that he put no real weight behind fears that the café would hit historic harbourside views which he said had been lost some time ago when millions of tons of concrete were poured out.

He said there had been "howls of derision" over plans for the seafront boat café structures "yet they have fitted in well" and he felt seeing a shipping container on the harbourside would be "nothing out of the ordinary".

But the committee received two dozen objections to the scheme, Mike Thomas telling members that the pro-

DR Margaret Barker has been the long-standing chairman of the Dorset Poverty Action Group and was awarded the MBE in February 2013 for her community work.

She fears further cuts to welfare benefits will make the situation worse for many local families and year, after year, has seen more people find themselves in difficulties through no fault of their own.

Dr Barker has also been heavily involved in the Hub centre for the homeless in the county town, now closed down, and says that while the demand for its services has lessened there are still 'hidden homeless' in the community. She is also currently the chair of Churches Together in Dorchester and holds positions with the Quakers.

She says that, despite appearances, there was still much work to be done to tackle poverty in and around the apparently affluent, town.

● WHAT brought you to Dorset initially?

My work, initially in 1976 to Portland for a few months and then Weymouth and Crossways before settling in Dorchester in 1988 as a community paediatrician. My hometown is Hereford and I trained in Birmingham but I was also in the Channel Islands for a couple of years in general practice. This was first job on the south coast that came up and I really didn't know Dorset at all until I came for interview. Originally I was based in the community until I got a consultant post and I was then based in the hospital, but working a lot of the time in the community, and at Digby Court.

● WHAT sparked your interest in working in the community?

It was clear doing local paediatrics in this area that there were families in extreme poverty, but because they might be just one family in a street or a village they were completely invisible and with no help or support for them. Most people just tried to cope, people didn't ask for help. I became interested in helping through a church conference in Dorchester on poverty.

● HOW important has your faith been in the process?

I was brought up a Methodist and then the Anglican church, but I got fed up because you couldn't get up and argue with the preacher. I so often disagreed with what they said, but there was no means of turning it into a debate. Over the course of time I had been to a lot of different churches; I had relatives who were Salvation Army and relatives who were Baptists, but my father had been a conscientious objector in the First World War and we had a lot of friends who were Quakers, so I had been brought up knowing about the Quakers. I began to attend meetings and in 1983 became a member; you go as an attender first, which I did for two years. I'm now treasurer of the local meeting and clerk of the trustees of the area meeting. It is a way of life rather than something just for Sundays, it has a strong tradition and a strong boundary to its way of life.

● HAVE there been other organisations you have joined locally?

I joined Rotary in 1998, simply because I was about to retire and knew that I wanted a continuing group to be working with in the community. I was very active and enjoyed it but decided on my 70th birthday to retire from it when it became a bit of a struggle to stand for several hours with a collection box, or organise a fundraising event.

● HOW did the Poverty Action Group come about?

There was a conference in town looking at the issues and it came from that in 1989. I was interested and went along to the initial meetings. Canon Letcher from St George's was the first chairman and when he stood down I was asked to take over - and have been doing it ever since. Our original projects were Second Chance furniture, the Credit Union and the Hub which, at the time, were all so much needed. There isn't an obvious project at the moment other than to make sure we are there when we are needed, especially at times like Christmas when we provide food vouchers for those who need them.

● IS the work of the group still needed as much today, as it was when it started?

The need seems to continue to increase and with yet another push by the Government to cut back on Welfare it seems certain to carry on and there will be more people pushed into poverty. A lot of people suffer from debt because of the ease in people being able to get credit, and benefits have not kept up with the cost of living or need. Many people say they have no family. It doesn't necessarily mean that they, literally, have no family, but that they have no family they can turn to for help and support, although we do find more and more grandparents taking on the responsibilities of childcare.

● APART from your work in the community is there time for your own enjoyment?

I love music. I started to learn the piano at seven and the organ at 12, but I didn't pick up singing until I moved to Dorset when I was living in Crossways and Brian Savage started a little choir. I love church music, particularly classical church music, and even some of the modern church music. To sing it in a church with a good reverberation is just lovely. I'm privileged to be a member of the Thomas Hardy Singers, which I started from the time when I was a governor at the school. We're currently working towards a carol concert in St Peter's which I'm looking forward to; so many of the young people are just so talented and learn so quickly.

● WHAT is it that drives you?

I like to get order out of chaos, I can't seem to resist it, and I often seem to be sitting in the wrong place at the wrong time and can't say 'no' when asked to do something. I remember when I was seven putting all my books in order and then putting up a notice which said "information here". And then I sat not knowing what to do because I was by myself in the loft! It's the same feeling I get when I sit at a desk: "right, this needs sorting out" and then I sort it out and then think "what did I do that for?"

● DO you think you will eventually slow down a bit?

I'm already finding everything takes a little bit longer, and sometime you do things twice over because you have forgotten that you have already done it...but I guess there will be a time when I will want to relinquish things and not pick something else up. I wonder though how I will fill my time when I'm not picking something new up... I'm not very good at just sitting around and relaxing.

concerns, adding: "Weymouth deserves better than this."

Others highlighted privacy concerns adding that the scheme was "not an architectural statement of the highest quality".

Bob Underwood of nearby Edward Court questioned just what the "unique dining experience" actually was with a "low grade development" which made a mockery of the planning process and the conservation area.

He added: "I deeply care about Weymouth and I don't want to see the harbourside spoilt by such a cheapskate development."

Councillor Joy Stanley warned that historic harbourside views would be lost if the scheme was approved while Councillor Francis Drake said it would have an detrimental impact on the area's quality of life, could set a precedent and was the wrong place for such a unit.

Vice-chairman Councillor Christine James was also against the proposal and she said the container was not in keeping with the conservation area while the site was "an important natural gap".

She added that she was not averse to business but it needed to be done properly when the Town Centre Master Plan was completed.

Councillor Jane Hall said the proposal would have a "hugely detrimental effect" on the unique harbourside area while Councillor Ian Roebuck said he was not happy to grant permission for something when it wasn't known if it could meet environmental health requirements.

Chairman Councillor Mark Tewkesbury was also against the scheme and said the cargo stage area had been a public amenity for years.

He added that the structure would obstruct safe passage through the area and he said: "I am not against something being there but this is a public amenity space."

The committee then voted 6-3 to refuse the scheme which it said would not preserve or enhance the conservation area.

Cycling to 'Lapland'

STAFF at Sainsbury's in Weymouth are getting on their bikes to "ride" to Lapland for their chosen charity, the Wyvern Academy.

Spokesman Peter Brown said: "We will be cycling on two static bikes in our foyer on Wednesday, December 17th, and hope to cover the equivalent distance of Weymouth to Lapland."

"Staff and customers are welcome to join in and New Body Gym have provided us with the bikes."

"We are raising funds for specialist playground equipment for Wyvern."

Crime round-up

Burglars threaten man with hypodermic needle

A MAN was pinned to a bed and threatened with a hypodermic needle during a burglary in Weymouth.

Police say the incident happened at around 5.30pm on December 3rd at an address in the Pottery Lane area.

Two men entered a bungalow uninvited, forced one of the male occupants onto a bed and threatened him with a hypodermic needle. The 24-year-old victim was uninjured.

The offenders stole two mobile phones before running away from the scene about 15 minutes later.

Acting Detective Sergeant James Mullen, of Weymouth CID, said: "I believe the offenders ran away from the location toward Weymouth town centre following the incident and I am keen to hear from anyone who may have seen two men acting suspiciously in that area."

"Calls will be dealt with in strict confidence."
Incident number 3:328

GHD hair products stolen

BURGLARS have struck at a hairdressers in Weymouth where they stole a till draw containing a quantity of cash and ten GHD straightener styling products.

Police say the incident happened between 10.30pm on December 5th and 2.42am on December 6th when the offenders forced their way in through the front door of Hair Moda in Marsh Road.

PC Simon Anderson, of Weymouth Police, said: "I am appealing for any witnesses to this incident to contact me in confidence."

"I am particularly keen to hear from anyone who may have seen individuals acting suspiciously in the Marsh Road area during the relevant time."

"Anyone who has been offered GHD straighteners for sale via social media or locally for unusually low prices or in suspicious circumstances should also call police."

Incident number 6:58

Anyone who saw anything or who has any information about these incidents should contact Dorset Police in complete confidence on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111

Search still on for Portland missing man

THE mother of missing man Paul Smith is appealing for anyone with information about her son's whereabouts to contact Dorset Police.

The 49-year-old, of Saltburn-by-the-Sea in Cleveland, was last seen at his parents' home on Portland on Friday November 7th 2014 when he said he was going to find somewhere to live in the Bournemouth area.

He was reported missing on November 12th by his concerned parents.

Inspector Rob Jacobs, of Dorset Police, said: "Concern is increasing for Paul. I urge him to get in touch as soon as possible – we simply need to know that he is safe and well."

"Our investigations have revealed that Paul is believed to have got on a South West train at 7.25am on Friday November 7th, from Weymouth railway station and arrived in Bournemouth at 8.24am.

"Paul is then believed to have boarded a cross country train at 8.45am from Bournemouth and arrived in Coventry at 11.23am.

"We understand Paul may have used a train to get to Leamington Spa on Saturday, November 8th 2014. He has not been seen or heard from since."

Paul's mother Jannett Davey said: "I am urging anyone who was on those trains in Weymouth and Bournemouth and who may have seen or even spoken to Paul, to please get in contact with Dorset Police."

"We just want to know Paul is safe and well. If you can help us it will make our Christmasmas."

Paul is described as white, approximately five feet eight inches

Schools' admission deadline looming

DORSET parents are being reminded that there are only a few weeks left to apply for their child's reception school place.

Children born between September 1st 2010 and August 31st 2011 should start school in September 2015, and parents have until January 15th 2015 to apply for a school place.

Dorset County Council handles school admissions for the county and is reminding parents that they must apply now to be in with a chance of securing a place at one of their preferred schools.

Cllr Toni Coombs, Cabinet member for education at Dorset County Council, said: "With Christmas nearly upon us, we want to make sure that parents don't forget to send us their applications.

"Starting school is a major milestone in a child's life and I cannot stress enough how important it is that families apply on time, as submitting an application late affects the likelihood of being allocated a place at a preferred school."

All the information, including an online application form, is available at www.dorsetforyou.com/schooladmissions. Alternatively, families can call 01305 221060 for an application pack to be sent out in the post.

If parents apply online they will be able to view the outcome of their application on the website dorsetforyou.com next 16 April 2015.

Ambitious business plans launched by DCCI

AN ambitious vision for the future has been launched at Dorset Chamber of Commerce and Industry's (DCCI) annual meeting.

Chief executive Ian Girling outlined the dynamic five-year plan for 2015-2020 under its new motto, Leading Business in Dorset.

The five-year plan sets out clear targets under four headings:

- supporting our members,
- helping make Dorset a great place to do business,
- facilitating a powerful voice for business and
- developing accessible support for business.

New office bearers and elected council members were also appointed for 2015 with AFC Bournemouth commercial director Rob Mitchell succeeding Paul Collins as president.

Mr Girling said: "We are an ambitious Chamber with a clear focus on where we want to go and what we want to achieve.

The new strategy for success comes after 12 months of modernisation and expansion at DCCI.

It focuses on DCCI's long term aims and aspirations to spearhead the drive for economic growth in Dorset.

The five-year plan sets out clear targets under four headings:

- supporting our members,
- helping make Dorset a great place to do business,
- facilitating a powerful voice for business and
- developing accessible support for business.

Key measures include delivery of high quality events, conferences, services, advice and support.

Others are developing core business skills and knowledge as well as information about legislation, key issues, opportunities, access to funding and new technology.

DCCI will encourage inward investment, develop international trade, support growth of key sectors and forge a powerful pan-Dorset chamber network.

The Chamber will allow easy access to services which support the development and delivery of enhanced services for start-up and established businesses.

Rob paid tribute to outgoing president Paul for an outstanding tenure as he accepted the office for 2015 and said he was looking forward to working with David and Vincent, as well as Ian, the DCCI board.

He said he could only see DCCI going from strength to strength and added: "With the launch of the new five year strategic plan, it is an exciting time to be taking on the role."

Visit www.dcci.co.uk to see the full five-year plan.

Ocean Views development takes a step forward

A DEVELOPER trying to create 554 flats out of old naval accommodation on Portland has been granted a planning revision to get the scheme back on track.

Fulca Ltd had argued that market changes meant providing an element of affordable housing for the Hardy Complex site, now known as Ocean Views, was no longer possible if it was to remain viable.

But a meeting of Weymouth & Portland planning committee heard that independent viability consultants for the council said the scheme was viable and they put residual land value at £21.73 million as against Fulca's assessment of £1.7 million negative land value.

Fulca's application had been considered at an earlier planning committee which deferred a decision so Fulca could meet with the council's consultants to try and thrash out a way forward.

The latest planning committee was told that Fulca no longer sought to forego an affordable housing element in their scheme but only to revise an existing Section 106 obligation so that any affordable housing element could be "reconsidered" through two viability reappraisals.

But Councillor Sandy West was against the compromise and warned that if it was granted then other builders would use it as an example of why they shouldn't pay their contribution.

She added that she didn't think it was "morally right" for Fulca to make the application which she was "totally opposed" to.

She voted against it and Councillor Ian Roebuck abstained, but members were told the government was trying to "kick-start" house building and Councillor Paul Kimber said: "If it went to appeal we could lose the whole case and any contribution to affordable housing."

Councillor Kevin Brookes said: "I don't like the look of it any more than anybody else does. We are between a rock and a hard place."

He said that at least the proposed revision would "get things moving" and colleagues then voted 7-1 in favour of the proposed revision with one abstention.

RAFA Veterans' Christmas lunch

Portland 'blot' to be transformed

PLANNERS have unanimously backed a flats and workshops development which will transform a "blot" on Portland's landscape.

Nemesis Properties plans to redevelop the former Copine Fisheries shellfish processing building at Stone Pier, Castletown to create up to nine marine workshops/storage units and nine holiday apartments.

Members of Weymouth & Portland planning committee were told that the scheme was an imaginative use of the harbourside frontage.

Councillor Sandy West agreed and said: "I am absolutely delighted with this plan. Castletown is in dire need of some form of regeneration."

She added that the site was in "a terrible state" and had been "extremely dangerous", so it was nice to see a plan which would be in keeping with the conservation area and which offered employment prospects. She was also happy with the holiday accommodation provided it did not become permanent residential.

Councillor Paul Kimber agreed and said: "It was a blot. This is a lovely clean-up of the site which will certainly enhance the area."

And Councillor Pam Nixon said: "I think it is an imaginative plan encouraging small businesses."

Nursery burgled

A BURGLAR was spotted running away after he broke into a day nursery in Weymouth.

Police say the incident happened between 10.45pm-11.00pm on Friday, December 12th, at Chipmunks Day Nursery in the Buxton Road area.

Detective Constable Gerald Marchant, of Weymouth CID, said: "The victim has told us that the premises were secure and entry was gained by smashing a ground floor window but nothing was removed from inside."

"The suspect was seen to leave and run away from the scene and is described by a witness as having his face covered, wearing a dark coat, jeans and white coloured trainers."

"I'd like to hear from any witnesses to this incident and from anyone who saw somebody acting suspiciously in the area of Buxton Road at that time."

"I'd also like to hear from anyone else with any other information that might help my investigation."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101, quoting incident number 12:453 or call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Sequoia the Sea Life penguin needs a friend

FATHER Christmas's visit to Weymouth Sea Life Adventure Park has seen the colony of 11 Humboldt penguins receive a Christmas stocking each filled with fish and goodies.

Sequoia the youngest penguin was delighted to find Father Christmas at the viewing window with a special Christmas gift just for her.. a plush toy penguin.

Sequoia has just reached maturity and is currently the only single penguin at the park. Since all the other penguins are in pairs, she sometimes visits their nesting boxes for company but is often chased out.

This Christmas, staff are playing match-maker to get Sequoia a mate, so she's not so lonesome during the winter evenings.

Displays curator Fiona Smith said: "Sequoia enjoys interacting with guests through the viewing window as penguins are very social creatures. She was thrilled that Father Christmas popped by!"

Humboldt Penguins are an endangered species, so Sea life started a breeding program in 2001 to help sustain numbers in captivity due to their drastic decline in the wild. With only about 12,000 Humboldt's left in the wild, breeding colonies throughout centres such as Sea Life will help to sustain numbers in captivity and will also help to raise awareness of their conservation status.

The penguins at Weymouth Sea Life Park are available to adopt with 20 percent going to animal related charities to protect penguins in the wild.

Father Christmas is residing at the Park until Christmas Eve. To book and see Father Christmas visit www.sealifeyleyouth.com/christmas.

■ SAM West among fete crowds

St Augustine's school fete

HUNDREDS of people packed Weymouth's St Augustine's School when it held its annual Christmas fete.

More than a dozen stalls were laid out in the school hall with everything from tombola, toys and DVDs to books, cakes, crafts, gifts, jewellery and loom bands.

Organiser Sam West said: "This is one of our biggest fundraisers of the year."

"The response here today was amazing. Just look at it! There are hundreds of people here which is just what we wanted."

"All money raised will go directly towards paying for school trips for children, equipment and other benefits, basically the things that the school cannot otherwise afford to offer."

Wey Valley pupils enjoy a trip to Cologne's Christmas markets

TWENTY-nine students from Wey Valley School, Weymouth, visited Cologne in Germany for a weekend cultural break featuring the city's famous Christmas Markets.

Other destinations included Cologne Cathedral, a UNESCO world heritage site which houses the remains of the Three Kings, as well as a visit to the famous Lindt chocolate factory and the city's outdoor ice rink.

Trip organiser Marie Claridge said: "The students had a really great time. This is the sixth year we have taken a group to Germany for the Christmas markets and it's an experience not to be missed.

■ YEAR 7 pupil Sandra Przybysz (left) and Marie Claridge

■ WEY Valley School students in Cologne

"As Germany's fourth largest city, Cologne offers our students a wonderful cultural experience. They were excellent ambassadors for the school and took every opportunity to practice their German."

Teacher Julian Richards said: "Cologne cathedral is Germany's top tourist attraction and Schildergass the country's most-visited shopping street. The Christmas music, arts and crafts, decorations and the scent of the Christmas food at the markets created a wonderful atmosphere."

Dan Cox from Year 11 said: "It was a fantastic trip. We all really enjoyed discovering the markets and exploring the city."

Fellow student Ryan Nash said: "The ice skating was fun with everyone having a go. I'm so glad we had the chance to visit Cologne. I would definitely recommend it!"

■ EMILIA Ambrico with some reindeer

Park Community's Christmas

PARK Community Centre was a hive of Christmas industry when Weymouth's Let's Make It group got to grips with the festive season.

They held workshops to teach people how to make everything from Christmas cards to tree ornaments such as reindeer, trees and stars.

Organiser Julie Hursthouse said: "The response was fantastic; every place was taken and people really enjoy doing something practical which they can display at home at Christmas.

Among those taking part was Joy Stanley who taught people how to make Christmas tree ornaments.

She said: "Recycling has been the key to our Christmas trees.

"We had wool given to us on spools which we used for teddy bears, which left us with the empty spools which our art group has painted green to use as the basic structure for our Christmas trees.

"Nothing goes to waste and people end up with a lovely ornament to take home."

Easton welcomes crowds to its Christmas Promise evening

■ Laurie Cripps gets some help from a minion on her crochet stall

CROWDS were deep and crisp and even when Portland staged its annual Easton Christmas Promise event.

Throughout the evening there were special offers and competitions in shops while there was also a family Christmas fancy dress competition, a Christmas treasure hunt and a host of other attractions at various sites.

Portland Town Crier Stuart Cave shouted the event underway and his opening was swiftly followed by carols round the brightly-lit Christmas tree led by Julia's House members.

Singers, music and a scene from the nativity were all on offer while there were hot drinks, charity and craft stalls in the Methodist Hall.

Children were invited to meet Portland Rotary's Santa and the donkeys from Weymouth Beach or to try the merry-go-round while adults could enjoy hot chestnuts or tour the many shops which stayed open late for the celebrations.

Easton Christmas Promise was co-ordinated by Portland Community Partnership whose chairman Andy Matthews said:

"This is one of the nights of the year that Portland really enjoys. "There was something for everyone because it was a family event, but we also wanted to try to raise awareness of some of the businesses on the island and the range of crafts available."

Island Community Action seeks ten volunteers

PORLND'S Island Community Action is seeking ten people to fill the last remaining places on an exciting new volunteer program designed to help local people make a real difference to their community.

The free opportunity is open to anyone within Weymouth and Portland who has a real passion for their local community and wants to make a difference.

Starting in February

2015 with an introductory weekend, the six month programme offers a fantastic training package which has been designed to build people's confidence, communication, listening and analytical skills and also enable them to feel more connected to and able to support their community.

After the initial induction weekend, the remaining elements of this volunteer program can be completed flexibly to fit around busy work and family lives. In total it requires just two hours commitment a fortnight.

As the program progresses people will use their newly acquired skills to work through a simple conversation, initially with friends, family and neighbours, before engaging with the local community.

Throughout this period they will learn about the issues that are really important to local people and what ideas and solutions they have to combat these.

By joining as a volunteer people will play an important part in a growing network of over 3,300 individuals working to improve the areas they live in and helping to get local voices heard.

Volunteering is already recognised as a great way of keeping people's CV current, meeting new people, socialising, expanding skills and knowledge or just simply "giving something back".

The local area has seen some of the most vulnerable people gain success and national recognition as volunteers using this technique to take decisive and collective action across a range of projects.

A free crèche provided by AbracaDeborah Day Nursery will be available for children aged 2+ for both the induction and the mid-course weekends.

For further information about the programme, contact islandcommunityaction@btconnect.com or speak to Bill or Katie on 01305 823789.

Chase the pud!

SANTAS, elves, fairies and other Christmas characters will chase a Christmas pudding along the beach near Weymouth Pavilion on Sunday, December 21st.

People are invited to come along to Weymouth seafront and watch at 11.00am.

It is being organised by Weymouth & Portland council and triathlon and events club Bustinskin who are aiming for record breaking entry levels this year to raise money for the Will Mackness Trust, a local water sports charity.

Everyone is invited to join in the event along a five kilometre course from the Pavilion end of the beach to the Groyne at Greenhill and back again.

It costs £10 for adults (£15 with Santa suit included) and under-10s go free with a family member..

Weymouth and Portland tourism spokesman Councillor Rachel Rogers said: "Local events generate pride, awareness and help raise money for countless charities and good causes throughout the area.

"The council is thrilled to support Chase the Pudding and would encourage everyone to go down to the seafront on December 21st to support this great event."

Will Mackness Trust secretary Pam Govier said: "It will be a great day with the wonderful sight of hundreds of Santas chasing after the pudding and Ed Hintze playing Christmas carols in the Ocean Room for when the runners set off and return.

Bustinskin director Mark Steen said: "I am really pleased to be partnered with the Will Mackness Trust for the first time this year. It is a very worthwhile cause. I am sure that many local club runners and enthusiasts will turn out in great numbers to share this hilarious, happy and healthy seasonal event."

Registration is at 9.00am in the Pavilion Ocean Room followed by a warm up from 9.30am by Gina Hartley.

Competitors and spectators are welcome to use the Pavilion bars and cafés which are open from 10.00am to 4.00pm.

This year's Chase the Pudding will be started by Wessex FM breakfast presenter James O'Neill along with Weymouth and Portland Mayor Councillor Kate Wheller and stars from this year's Pavilion Theatre pantomime Aladdin.

Personal breathalyser kits generally give false readings

MOTORISTS are being warned by Dorset police not to rely on personal breathalysers during this Christmas drink and drug drive campaign following a survey.

Tests carried out by Dorset County Council's Trading Standards officers revealed that drivers relying on shop-bought breathalysers would put both themselves and other road users at risk.

Out of 14 devices tested, nine indicated that the user was still safe to drive when the legal drink drive limit was actually exceeded.

Officers also found false claims of links to the police on four of the devices which were bought over the internet.

Inspector Matt Butler, of Dorset Police's Traffic Unit, said: "Home breathalyser kits can be unreliable so we are urging people not to use them."

"Research has shown that just one drink can impair someone's ability to drive."

"Our message is very clear: if you are going to drive, don't drink any alcohol at all."

Ivan Hancock, Trading Standards Service Manager for Dorset

County Council, said: "Not only are they unreliable but we have also identified some being sold with descriptions that cannot be substantiated which are likely to mislead anyone buying one."

"Drivers would be extremely foolish to rely on the readings they get from one of these cheap devices. Use your head. Just don't drink and drive."

Friends of Castle Cove now formally constituted and has 100 members

AN inaugural meeting has formally established The Friends of Castle Cove Beach in Weymouth and it already has 100 fully paid up members.

Sixty people came to the Friends' first annual meeting at St Nicholas' church hall in Buxton Road, where they heard a presentation by newly elected chairman Steve Elsworth about the 100-year history of the beach.

Mr Elsworth said: "We couldn't recruit members up to now because we weren't formally established, but we started signing people up at Wyke Christmas Fayre.

"We got 47 new members then and 48 at the annual meeting. With five pledges, we now have 100 fully-paid up members. Our email list has gone up from 80 to 140.

"It's an astonishing start for a new organisation, but everyone was really enthusiastic. People were queuing up to join us."

The Friends will now be opening up membership to the 350 people on its Facebook page and the 80 people on its original mailing list.

Mr Elsworth said: "We hope to have 200 members by the end of February in advance of the May elections. In the meantime, we will be asking councillors a simple question: Do you have any plans for reopening Castle Cove Beach, or do you intend it to remain permanently closed?"

Access to Castle Cove Beach was closed in April 2013 after a small landslip. Local people thought that the steps to the beach would be reinstated, but in June 2014 Mr Elsworth said it became clear that the council wanted to close the beach permanently.

The Friends of Castle Cove Beach was formed in July 2014 on an informal basis.

It is now formally constituted and is a non-political organisation.

Buxton House enjoys their Christmas fair

STAFF and residents at Care South's Buxton House care home in Weymouth recently invited their friends, families and the local community to join them at the home's annual Christmas fair.

Each year the home holds its Christmas fair to raise money for the home's Residents' Amenity Fund. This year, the Committee are celebrating raising £700 which will go towards a programme of activities for residents in the New Year.

During the fair visitors were able to browse a range of stalls providing plenty of inspiration for Christmas presents for all the family including homemade cakes and chocolate, wood and paper crafts and bric-a-brac.

Residents' grandchildren and great-grandchildren were delighted to explore the home's very own Santa's grotto where Father Christmas was in residence giving out presents throughout the afternoon. The fayre also gave visitors a chance to enjoy a cup of tea and a mince pie with the home's residents and for everyone to get to know one another better.

■ STAFF and residents enjoying their Christmas fair

Home manager Junnette Brooksbank said: "Our Christmas fair is a real highlight of the year for residents and staff and we hope everyone who visited it enjoyed it as much as we did.

"We'd like to say a big thank you to everyone who came along and all our staff for their support in making it such a great event. We work hard to make sure Christmas is a very special time for our residents and our fair is a big part of that."

Mayor launches annual Christmas appeal

AN annual Christmas fund appeal has been launched by Weymouth & Portland Mayor, Councillor Kate Wheller and Weymouth & Portland Lions Club.

The Mayor is appealing to the community to support those in need this Christmas and help raise some festive joy across the borough.

The appeal, which is managed by Weymouth & Portland Lions Club, aims to raise as much as possible to improve the lives of those in need within the community.

Every single penny raised will go to those who need it most with initiatives such as a Christmas lunch for elderly and vulnerable people, a toy appeal and donations to five local food banks. Last year the appeal managed to raise a total of £1,669.87.

Mrs Wheller would also like to invite members of the public to take part in a charity raffle.

The raffle will be raising money for The Friendship Club, a local charity helping organise social events for people with learning difficulties which is the Mayor's chosen charity for the year. The prize on offer is a bottle of House of Commons 10 year old single malt whisky.

Those who would like to take part can purchase tickets, £1 a square, from North Quay reception.

Mrs Wheller said: "I am pleased to launch our annual Christmas fund appeal and make a difference to those most in need during this festive time of year."

"The residents of Weymouth and Portland have consistently shown a strong sense of community spirit and I am extremely grateful to the many people who donate and help raise money for so many worthy causes."

"Weymouth & Portland Lions

Club will once again manage the fund and I would like to take this opportunity to thank them for their amazing support."

Les Board, Vice President of Weymouth & Portland Lions Club, said: "I would like to thank everyone who makes a donation. It is only with their kind assistance that we are able to make life a bit easier for those in our community in greatest need."

Donations of any amount are gratefully received and can be sent to Mayor's Christmas Fund Appeal, Council Offices, North Quay, Weymouth, DT4 8TA or they can be dropped in at the reception desk where appeal envelopes are available. All donations will be acknowledged, unless people ask to remain anonymous.

Any organisations, groups or individuals that could benefit from the fund's support this year can contact the above address.

■ Widow Twanky and Wishee Washee meet Asda's community life champion Sandy West Widow Twanky's in Asda. Oh yes she is!

STARS from Weymouth Pavilion's 2014 pantomime, Aladdin, recently stopped off at Asda to do a bit of shopping and publicise their production.

Widow Twanky and her son, Wishee Washee, grabbed Asda community life champion Sandy West and got her to show them round.

The dotty duo will join other stars on stage for the family pantomime which runs until January 4th, 2015.

Pavilion manager Phil Say said: "We are on course to break box office records for ticket sales for the second year running."

"Our phones are practically catching fire there are so many people keen to get a seat for Aladdin.

"Last year we sold more than 10,000 tickets for Cinderella and we are already set to beat that."

Aladdin tells the tale of a young boy who finds a magic lamp which, when rubbed, grants him three wishes....and a lot of problems!

Mr Say said: "Ron Martin Management, which did such a good job last year, is also presenting this year's pantomime, a really professional production which provides some hilarious entertainment."

Movie star Paddington starts his tour of Dorset

PADDINGTON Bear has arrived in Dorset and has embarked on what will be the start of many adventures around the county.

The Visit Dorset Tourism Partnership are pleased to be working with VisitBritain as part of their global PR, digital and social media campaign to promote Britain as a GREAT destination on the back of the international release of the new Paddington film.

Dorset has been lucky enough to be selected to host the famous marmalade loving bear, and Paddington's itinerary has so far seen him build a sandcastle on Weymouth Beach, visit the Olympic Rings on Portland and take a 'selfie' at the Portland Bill lighthouse.

A visit to Dorset wouldn't be complete without a 'set jetting' trip to West Bay and Paddington took great delight in visiting the filming location of popular ITV drama Broadchurch.

You can follow Paddington's Dorset adventure by visiting www.facebook.com/VisitDorset or keep up to date on Twitter with Paddington's travels around Britain by using the hashtag #PaddingtonsBritain.

The Visit Dorset Tourism Partnership is made up of the district and borough councils from West Dorset, Christchurch, Purbeck, East Dorset and Weymouth & Portland.

Vampires Rock at the Pavilion

■ SOME of the cast of Vampires Rock

WEYMOUTH Pavilion is the venue for the hugely popular Vampires Rock show on Sunday, January 11th, 2015, at 7.30pm.

Billed as the "the hardest rocking, funniest (and just a little bit naughty) show in town," Steve Steinman's Vampires Rock is set in the year 2030.

It centres on the undead Baron von Rockula, the owner of the Live and Let Die nightclub, and his quest to find a new bride.

Ably supported by the Lost Boys and his manservant, Bossley, the Baron (the uber talented Steve Steinman) rocks his way through hit after hit, with Meatloaf, AC/DC, Bonny Tyler, Rainbow, Guns 'n' Roses, Queen, Bon Jovi and many more providing the vocal ammunition as he attempts to first woo and then capture the seemingly innocent Pandora.

It's easy to see why this show has been a sell out for years with pyrotechnics, some very sexy dancers and the best live rock show in the UK all going to create an unforgettable night.

The show is a riot from start to finish. Steve's talent and humour making no two shows the same and, by the time the final curtain falls, the audience will have spent most of the evening on their feet, dancing, singing along and having an amazing time.

So if you love rock music (or know someone who does), if you fancy an amazing evening of fun and laughter and if you want to see this record breaking show on its final tour, get your ticket now for the best possible start to the New Year.

THINK DON'T DRINK & DRIVE

The festive season is now upon us and with it comes work nights out and an opportunity to catch up with friends and family. But for all too many, it's tempting to ruin the celebrations by driving home after a couple of drinks.

IN THE last 50 years road casualties caused by drink driving have fallen dramatically, but in 2012, there were still 230 deaths due to drink driving – accounting for 13% of all road fatalities. By drinking and driving, you risk your life, those of your passengers and others on the road.

Any amount of alcohol affects your ability to drive. You risk a fine of up to £5,000, a minimum 12-month driving ban and a criminal record.

THE LAW

There are strict alcohol limits for UK drivers: In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, the legal alcohol limit for drivers is:

- 35 microgrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath
- 80 milligrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood
- 107 milligrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of urine

In Scotland (from 5 December 2014) the legal alcohol limit for drivers is lower at:

- 22 microgrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath
- 50 milligrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood
- 67 milligrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of urine.

However it is not possible to say how much alcohol you can drink and stay below the limit. The way alcohol affects you depends on:

- your weight, age, sex and metabolism (the rate your body uses energy)
- the type and amount of alcohol you're drinking
- what you've eaten recently
- your stress levels at the time

So if you're driving, it's better to have none for the road.

DRINK DRIVING

- Don't drink and drive, the only safe limit is none.
- You can still be over the limit the morning after.
- Drink and drug driving does cost lives.
- Get caught drink driving and you will be treated like any other criminal.
- A drink driving conviction will stay on your licence for 10 years.
- Program a phone number for a licensed taxi company into your mobile phone before you go out.
- If you are caught drink driving you will be required to attend court where you could face a fine, be banned from driving or imprisoned.

THE CONSEQUENCES

if you are convicted of drink driving, including:

- A minimum 12 month driving ban
- A criminal record
- A fine of up to £5,000
- An endorsement on your license for 11 years

However, this list does not reflect the everyday consequences of being caught drink driving which can include:

- Increase in car insurance costs
- Job loss
- Trouble getting in to countries like the USA
- The shame of having a criminal record
- Loss of independence

The Institute of Advanced Motorists calculate that a drink drive conviction could cost between £20,000 - £50,000 as a result of fines, solicitors fees, increase in car insurance and loss of job.

YOU DRINK YOU DRIVE YOU LOSE

THINK ADVICE

Beware the morning after

You could be over the legal limit many hours after your last drink, even if it's the 'morning after'. Sleep, coffee and cold showers don't help to sober you up - time is the only way to get alcohol out of your system.

There is no excuse for drink driving

"I can handle my drink."

Alcohol affects everybody's driving for the worse. It creates a feeling of overconfidence, makes judging distance and speed more difficult and slows your reactions so it takes longer to stop

"I'm only going down the road."

A large proportion of all drink drive crashes occur within three miles of the start of the journey.

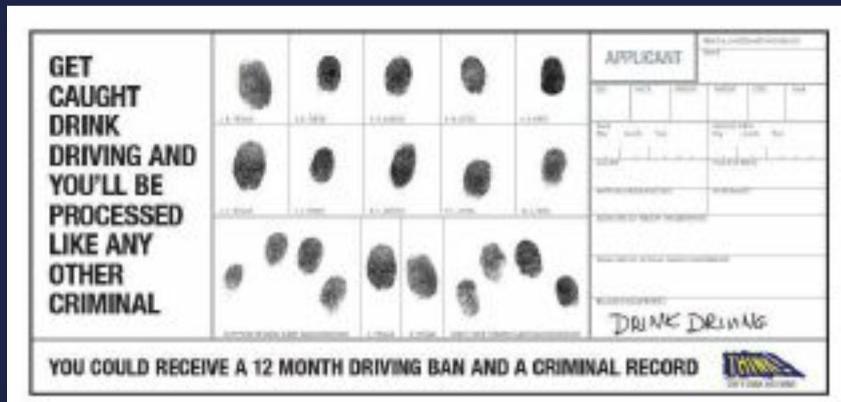

If you're planning to drink alcohol, plan how to get home without driving Options include agreeing on a designated driver, saving a taxi number to your phone, or finding out about public transport routes and times before you go out.

Don't offer an alcoholic drink to someone you know is planning to drive

Even if you're not driving, you can help reduce the number of people who are killed and injured every year by drink driving.

Don't accept a lift from a driver you know has drunk alcohol

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Looking forward to the maths of cooking the turkey properly

BARELY a week until gas and electric company systems groan under the mass strain of millions of households cooking the Christmas dinner.

And it must be cooked properly, not least after dire recent warnings that an alarming number of chickens being sold came complete with a bug that could make people a bit less than Ho! Ho! Ho! unless the aforementioned chicken is given a good roasting.

So what chance does the average household stand cooking a much larger turkey? The problem can often be the family itself since, while kids will get up early, Mum and Dad are probably wiped out from the previous night's efforts to get everything ready for the big day and may be sleeping in... if the little darlings let them.

But dealing with that turkey is an early morning necessity or you'll be eating it for supper instead of lunch.

It will take about an hour to prepare, to check inside the bird and remove any packets of giblets or the neck, to pull out any stray remaining feathers, to cover the breast and sides in bacon, to cover the turkey in foil and to work out how long and at what temperatures to cook it at.

This is then followed by the cooking which can last more than five hours with a suitable time included for the meat to rest.

I have brought an element of cunning science to our preparations, all faithfully noted on an old Christmas card envelope from our first Christmas together more than 30 years ago which reveals our lightest turkey was 8lbs and our heaviest 16lbs.

This note taking is not as daft as it seems since sooner or later you buy a turkey the same weight as a previous year and you can then look back, see what timings you used then and whether it all worked. If your notes say timings were dodgy you can adjust them.

Bearing in mind our average turkey seems to be about 11-12lbs, say 5.5kg, the following yarn should be a warning for all of us to be grateful for small mercies.

We all know you can get turkeys of all sizes but apparently the largest ones are prized by big hotels, banquets or celebrations to cook and display as the centrepiece of their event.

Believe it or not, some of these turkeys weigh more than 70lbs (35kg) and are actually twice the size of your standard oven!

Just be grateful that your turkey is unlikely to be a third that size and make sure you get enough chipolatas in or there are bound to be moans.

Happy cooking.

Give to charity rather than beggars

WOULD you give money to a clean, well-dressed person wearing new trainers and sporting a thick anorak?

Probably not, but that is what shoppers are being encouraged to do as Weymouth's growing band of beggars tries to siphon off the Christmas pounds.

They are everywhere, often with the obligatory dog in tow but, before the spirit of Christmas softens your heart and you reach for some famous 'spare change', just stand at distance and watch them for a while. I bet you'll see them chatting on their mobile phones, and their friends stopping by to see how much money they've made. Some even get dropped off at their pitches.

So if you want to be charitable at Christmas, give to a charity.

Dorchester staging tri-council takeover?

HAVE you all breathed a huge sigh of relief over the proposed tri-council partnership? No, neither have I.

It is touted as a money-saving godsend, a streamlining of three previous councils: Weymouth & Portland, West Dorset and North Dorset, which will create one super organisation covering a huge area.

Many public assurances have been given that "each council will remain independent and equal" but I have a nasty feeling that one council will be more equal than others.

Take West Dorset for instance. It is based in Dorchester at the notorious South Walks building: an expensive white elephant, but what can be done to justify its existence?

Well it didn't take West Dorset long to come up with an answer. 'How about we help the merger with our Weymouth & Portland friends by letting out areas of South Walks to them? And we could also let out space to our country cousins in North Dorset. That way we justify the building and ensure overall tri-council power is based in Dorchester.'

But if all this space is available then they built South Walks too big in the first place: the whole point of our new modern councils is to have them tightly run.

What we are seeing is no more and no less than a takeover by Dorchester.

Councillors in Weymouth & Portland have finally woken up to the fact that they are slowly being relegated to a support act on Dorchester's stage, but it is not too late to fight back.

I hope something can be done to keep as many staff here as possible. If it can't then Weymouth & Portland won't have a shred of sovereignty left and will just be Dorchester's poor relative.

Judy's Jewels

Hi! My name is Judy Churchill and I'm a jewellery designer specialising in high-end, fashion accessories. I use semi-precious gemstones to create 99% of my pieces, taking inspiration from things around me, nature and trends. I use the best quality stones sourced from around the world, making each piece feel as good as it looks! Carefully hand finishing all my items to the highest quality ensures your jewellery pieces can be treasured for years.

I first became interested in making jewellery about five years ago. I have always been keen on crafts, first dressmaking (which I still do), knitting and then card making. Although I still knit and sew, I was never happy with my card making – I didn't achieve the professional look I was after.

So I started looking at making jewellery. After watching a couple of shows on the television I was hooked. I bought the tools a few beads and wire and off I went. Looking back, my first pieces were very amateurish, but with practice my skills have grown from strength to strength and I can now achieve the look I want.

I started off working with glass beads and then just out of interest bought some semi-precious gemstones. Well, that was it! I haven't looked back. They are so tactile and individual that each piece of jewellery never looks the same as the one before.

My stash grew and grew and the pieces of jewellery I was making I couldn't possibly wear if I lived to be 100! Then I was made redundant and the idea was born to open my own retail premises. It took me about a year to decide but once I was over the initial anxiety of 'shall I shan't I' scenario, I bit the bullet and went ahead.

After a few sleepless nights I opened the doors to the public in October 2012 and I love it. It is still early days but new people are finding me all the time so word is getting round slowly. So if you are ever in the Dorchester, Dorset area, look me up.

Help St John Ambulance keep Santa safe this Christmas

ST JOHN Ambulance is helping prevent unnecessary hospital admissions through first aid support and advice, in Dorset, over Christmas and the New Year.

As the NHS comes under increased pressure during the winter, the charity has launched a #SaveSanta campaign to teach first aid tips, as well as running projects aimed at stemming the flow of patients into accident and emergency departments.

St John Ambulance volunteers will be at events throughout the county, during the festive season to ensure that anyone who needs first aid gets it quickly. And the charity has enlisted the help of Santa Claus to illustrate five of the most common and easily treated injuries and ailments, through a series of cartoons, complete with expert first aid advice.

Dorset-based first aid trainer, Grant Wilson said: "So much of our work is about the importance of learning first aid, so that people can be the difference between a life lost and a life saved, but it's also important to know the basics, such as how to deal with cuts, bruises and other minor injuries."

"Many household emergencies can be dealt with in the home and don't need a trip to A&E, especially at such a busy time of year."

"A little first aid knowledge can go a long way and, if you're stuck for a New Year's resolution, how about booking onto one of our first aid courses, where you can learn even more skills?"

For more information on St John

Ambulance's work, including how to become a volunteer and details of training for the public, schools and businesses, visit www.sja.org.uk or call 08700 10 49.

Free advice service for Multiple Sclerosis sufferers

A FREE advice service for people with MS will continue to be operated by the Dorchester and Sherborne Citizens Advice Bureaux.

Over the past four years, the South West Dorset Branch of the MS Society has been working in partnership with the CAB to provide a free and confidential service to people with MS.

Dedicated Citizens Advice caseworker Dan Wallis has been working with the society to provide information, help and support in the community.

He has been available to make home visits to clients in the Dorchester, Weymouth, Portland and Bridport areas, to give advice and help on issues such as entitlement and access to state benefits.

If you have a story for Weymouth or Portland, email hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk for Dorchester, trevorbevins@gmail.com

Over the past four years, total benefit entitlements amounting to over £600,000 have been awarded as a result of Dan's advice and support. This equates to a return of £24 for every £1 of the annual grant of some £7,000 that the SW Dorset MS Branch contributes to the CAB budget.

Lynda Kiss, chairman of the branch has signed a new agreement for 2015 to enable the service to continue.

Councillor Peter Mann, Mayor of Dorchester and a trustee of the CAB, welcomes the new agreement.

He commented: "This is really good news for people with MS and for their families and carers. The partnership between the Multiple Sclerosis Society and the CAB has achieved huge benefits and I am delighted that it will be continuing to support the people of this area".

If you wish to contact the local MS Society branch, phone 01305 269375 or email swdorset@mssociety.org.uk

To contact Dan Wallis at the CAB, phone 01305 751514 or email admin@dorchester.cab-net.org.uk.

Wessex Water improves service while bills will fall in real terms

WEYMOUTH, Dorchester and west Dorset are to benefit from a major project by Wessex Water.

The company is completing an integrated water supply grid: a scheme which has been in use since 2010 which also includes north Dorset, and will be spending another £100 million on the eight-year project to enable Wessex Water to move water around its region and improve the ability to deal with unforeseen problems at individual sources.

The next three years will see the project extend to other parts of Dorset, providing more resilient water supplies to Dorchester, Weymouth and west Dorset.

Wessex Water has also announced that average bills for its customers will go down in real terms over the next five years.

The company will keep bills below the rate of inflation, having already held bill increases for 2014-2015 to inflation only changes. The average household bill for Wessex Water customers will fall by £39 and will not increase above inflation for the next five years.

At the same time, the company will invest more than ever before: more than £2 billion to maintain and improve services for customers. This major investment will boost local economies and create hundreds of new jobs.

Chief Executive Colin Skellett said: "Over the last year we have undertaken our largest ever customer consultation obtaining the views of more than 21,000 customers and 90 organisations.

"Our multi-million pound investment programme is based on the views of our customers, delivering higher standards of customer service. At the same time, by reducing returns to shareholders and improving our efficiency, we have been able to lower customers' bills in real terms."

"Even though bills will be going down in real terms, we recognise that some customers find it difficult to pay, which is why our plans also include further extension of our social tariffs and assistance programme."

Wessex Water's business plan was scrutinised by the independent regulator, Ofwat, to determine the right balance between investment, returns and prices.

The plan includes investment of more than £250 million on improving underground pipes, further work to reduce leakage - which has halved over the last 10 years - and work to reduce supply interruptions and to raise environmental standards.

Mr Skellett said: "Wessex Water continues to be recognised as the best performing water and sewerage company, providing the highest standards of customer services. This major investment will ensure customers continue to have the highest standards while at the same time bills fall in real terms."

WISHING YOU A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS & HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM YOUR PW ENERGY TEAM!

Every driver stopped will be breathalised

DORSET Police are urging people to 'shop' those driving over the limit – either on drink, or drugs.

Traffic officers have warned there will be an increase in traffic patrols and roadside checks throughout the festive period.

To date seven people have been charged with a drink or drug drive offence including a 76-year-old Bournemouth man.

Every driver involved in a crash, no matter how minor, in the Christmas and new year period will be breath tested, irrespective of whether they are suspected of drink driving or not.

If someone is caught drink driving, they will face a minimum 12 month driving ban, a criminal record, up to six months in prison and a fine of up to £5,000.

Inspector Matt Butler, of Dorset Police's Traffic Unit, said: "We don't want to stop people having a good time this Christmas but we will do everything we can to make Dorset's roads safer for everyone using them.

"Please don't drink and drive; it is simply not worth the risk. Appoint a designated driver or use a taxi instead.

"I would also like to remind everyone that the morning after can be just as dangerous as the night before so if you have been drinking into the night, there is a strong chance that you may not be fit to drive the morning after.

"No amount of cold showers or black coffee will change that."

Inspector Butler is urging people to call the police on 101, or 999 immediately, if they suspect someone is drink or drug driving.

Calls can also be made to the Crimestoppers charity anonymously on 0800 555111.

How much should police get from council tax?

LOCAL people are being asked whether they would support a freeze in the amount of council tax paid for police services, or whether they would prefer an increase or reduction.

The Police and Crime Commissioner, Martin Underhill, says he is likely to recommend freezing the police share of council tax from April at current levels, but he warns that this will leave little room for any improvements in service, or level of police officers.

He is asking for comments on the proposal, or alternatives, either in writing, by email, phone or via an online survey.

Mr Underhill says each of the possible alternatives will have an effect – increasing the share of the council charge by one per cent would bring in an extra £500,000 and cost the average council tax payer in Dorset an additional £1.80 a year. A five per cent rise would bring in £2.5million extra and cost taxpayers £9 more per year.

A reduction would mean fewer police officers and support staff and a lower level of service.

Underhill calls for the end of taser use on detainees and those in mental health crisis

MARTYN Underhill, Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner and Chairman of the APCC Mental Health Working Group is calling on the government to draft new guidance to stop tasers being used on detainees in police cells, especially on people in mental health crisis.

The PCC has raised his concerns to Home Office officials, after learning of three cases of detained persons in Dorset being tasered inside a custody block cell.

Mr Underhill said: "I am really concerned to learn about the use of tasers in police cells. In my view the police service needs stricter rules on deployment and stronger scrutiny when they do deploy.

"Just as I have campaigned to stop adults and children in mental health crisis being criminalised in custody suites, so I will campaign to stop mentally ill people being tasered in a cell.

A decade ago, politicians and the public were persuaded to import taser into the UK as an alternative to shooting someone dead.

"Now tasers are routinely carried and deployed as an alternative to all types of restraint. Parliament needs to intervene here and swing the pendulum back."

"It will never 'be okay' to taser someone who is scared, frightened and in crisis in a small cell. People have human rights and their dignity must be protected."

The PCC is in dialogue with a number of mental health leads across the country on this issue.

Martyn Underhill added: "This is a national issue. I am sure that Dorset Police is no different to any other Force and I note that Dorset Police complies with the current ACPO guidance regarding the use of tasers. However, I believe this is an issue worthy of an informed public debate and I strongly believe that there needs to be enhanced scrutiny of taser use and improved data recording of cell block taser deployments."

"This debate needs to sit within a wider policy discussion of the use of force against detainees in police custody and Martyn Underhill is determined to keep that debate alive."

Don't let fire ruin Christmas

CHRISTMAS dinner, wrapping presents, decorating your home – there's lots to think about this Christmas. But one thing Dorset Fire & Rescue Service and the Fire Kills campaign are urging Dorset residents to put top of their Christmas lists this year is fire safety.

Fire statistics show that in December, 20 people a day are either killed or injured in accidental fires in the home in England. In December 2013, there were around 2,700 accidental fires in the home in England: more than any other month of the year.

While fire safety is important throughout the year, the extra distractions of Christmas make it especially important to be vigilant during the festive season.

Kate Underhill, Prevention Manager at Dorset Fire & Rescue said: "Christmas is a time for festive cheer with family and friends. But fairy lights, candles and decorations mean it is also a time to take extra care to keep our loved ones safe from fire."

To ensure you have the merriest of Christmases, keep fire safety at the top of your list.

Here are some simple tips from Fire Kills to help you and your family enjoy the joys Christmas safely:

- Ensure you have working smoke alarms installed on all levels of your home. A working alarm can give you the vital time needed to escape in a fire.
- Never leave cooking unattended. Most fires start in the kitchen so this is a high risk area. Many of us enjoy a merry tipple over the festive season but be sure to avoid cooking whilst under the influence of alcohol. Always turn off kitchen appliances when you have finished cooking.

- Never leave burning candles unattended. Keep candles out of the reach of children and away from decorations, cards and wrapping paper, fires, lights and heaters.

• Put your cigarette out, right out. Make sure your cigarette is fully extinguished and take care when under the influence of alcohol or tired. It's very easy to fall asleep while your cigarette is still burning and set furniture alight.

- Don't overload sockets. Always turn off plugs when they are not in use, except those that are designed to be left on, like freezers.

• Ensure you switch off fairy lights and unplug them before you go to bed, or leave the house. Check your Christmas tree lights conform to the British Standard (BS EN 60598) and are in good working order before use.

- Always use an RCD (residual current device) on outdoor electrical equipment. This safety device can save lives by instantly switching off the power if there is a fault and can be found in any DIY store.

• Do something good this Christmas. Test the smoke alarms of someone you know who may need help such as an older relative or neighbour to ensure their safety as they are at greater risk from fire.

■ GEORGINA Bacon joins the family practice

Bacon joins Battens

A LEGAL firm has appointed an experienced lawyer as it expands its growing family practice in south Dorset.

Georgina Bacon brings eight years of experience to strengthen Battens' family team and specialises in domestic abuse cases.

She will serve clients in the Weymouth, Portland and Dorchester areas, providing support and legal advice to local families.

Georgina, who is an accredited member of the family lawyers' organisation Resolution, said: "Battens already has a well-established, professional and sizeable family team.

"I was keen to join the firm as it has an excellent reputation but also to be able to do more to help those clients who are most in need of help from our family team.

"They include those clients affected by domestic violence who approach us at crisis point when they think no-one is able to help.

"We take a non-confrontational approach to achieve as quick and effective a resolution as possible."

Cherise Luke-Bennett, joint head of Battens' family team, said: "We are very pleased to welcome Georgina to our team.

"As an experienced, knowledgeable and dedicated lawyer, she is a very valuable addition to our growing family practice."

Police target rural crime

DORSET Police's Special Constables delivered a two day cross-border operation recently to prevent and detect rural crime.

A team of 150 special constables from forces in Dorset, Wiltshire, Devon & Cornwall, Avon & Somerset and the Hampshire Constabulary patrolled 1800 square miles of rural area last Friday and Saturday.

Villages and towns around Axminster, Lyme Regis, Broadwindsor, Bridport, Sherborne, Mere, Shaftesbury, Blandford, Wimborne, Verwood, Fordingbridge, Ringwood, Brockenhurst and Christchurch were all included in the patrol route.

The operation, led by Dorset Police's Special Constabulary, involved proactive patrols in communities that have been targeted by criminals committing crime such as burglaries and rural thefts.

Officers carried out stop checks of vehicles travelling in the areas and paid particular attention to those who are known to carry out this type of crime.

Special Inspector Ben Muspratt, of Dorset Police, said: "It is very clear that this high visibility operation has had a positive impact on the community. It has demonstrated to residents that all five forces are committed to tackling rural crime.

"Over 1000 person and vehicle checks were conducted across the south west which sent out a very clear message to criminals that we will not tolerate such activity."

North Dorset special constables followed an alarm sounding in the Tarrant Hinton area; they checked the premises and located the landowner who confirmed it was a false alarm.

In the Sherborne area during patrols Dorset Specials located a six-wheeled off road vehicle with five people onboard with hunting equipment. A stop check confirmed that it belonged to the landowner who stated he was "extremely proud" officers were out patrolling his village.

Later in the shift in the Sherborne area a vehicle was stopped because it had no insurance and was seized from the owner.

"The Special Constabulary is keen to help tackle rural crime and we plan to carry out this operation on a regular basis. Special constables are unpaid volunteer police officers who have the same powers of arrest and wear the same uniform as regular officers.

Dorset Police is currently recruiting special constables and I would encourage anyone interested to 'be part of something more' to look at our website www.dorset.police.uk for more information on this unique voluntary role."

Members of the public can help protect themselves and their rural property from crime by following some simple crime prevention steps.

Advice and information is available on the crime prevention page on the Dorset Police website: <http://CrimePrevention.dorset.police.uk>.

SOUTHERN TENANT FOLK UNION COME TO THE MARINE THEATRE

ONE of the most highly acclaimed folk/bluegrass bands in the UK today, Southern Tenant Folk Union are about to release their sixth album (The Chuck Norris Project) and since starting out in 2006, have toured their exciting live show all over the UK, Ireland, Netherlands and Germany, and are heading to Lyme Regis in early 2015.

A six piece all acoustic band with banjo, mandolin, fiddle and harmony vocals, they perform an eclectic mix of high energy atmospheric folk and have received airplay from Bob Harris and Steve Lamacq on BBC Radio 2. Live appearances include BBC One TV (The Andrew Marr Show), RTE TV (The Late Late Show) & Radio 4's Loose Ends. Artistically successful, award winning and with an exciting live act worked around a single microphone, they have performed at Celtic Connections, Orkney Folk Festival, Belladrum and The Electric Picnic and now sellout arts centres across Europe.

Southern Tenant Folk Union play at the Marine Theatre on Friday, January 30th, doors open 7.15pm, with music from 8pm. Tickets are £13.50 or £12.50 concessions, and a TheatreFriends discount is available. For more details or to book visit www.marinetheatre.com or call 01297 442138

DORSET INSPIRES EXHIBITION BY LOCAL ARTISTS

A NEW exhibition opens at Dorset County Museum, Dorchester on Saturday, January 10th 2015.

Dorset: A Contemporary Response is the annual exhibition from Bournemouth Arts Club. The exhibition will be a display of high quality work bringing together members' individual responses to Dorset.

"We are really looking forward to this exhibition which has been inspired by how artists feel about the county of Dorset," said Jon Murden, Director of Dorset County Museum. "We anticipate a great variety in the work, but with the consistently high quality the club always demands."

The selection for the exhibition will be made by Dr Brian Graham, a highly respected Dorset artist fascinated by the past and inspired by Bronze Age and Neolithic archaeological sites.

Running alongside the main exhibition will be a smaller display of additional works by club artists. This will consist of sketch books, small dimensional pieces and smaller works on paper. Julie Herring, recent Curator of Art at Bournemouth University, is selecting these works which will be arranged to complement the main show.

Most of the pieces on display will be for sale and there should be something to suit even modest budgets. Of particular interest this year will be Postcards from Dorset - a display of postcard-sized works, one from each exhibiting artist, all of which will be for sale at the fixed price of just £30 each.

Other artworks will range in price from £50 to over £1000 with many on sale between £200 and £500.

The exhibition will run until 14 March 2015. The Museum also has a well-stocked gift shop and a popular tea room. For more information phone 01305 262735 or visit the website at www.dorsetcountymuseum.org

PETER PAN FLYS INTO BRIDPORT – SO HOOK YOUR TICKETS TODAY!

HOT on the heels of their phenomenal success and record-breaking Christmas pantomime season in 2013, Reamba Professional Pantomimes announce the release of tickets for their professional pantomime production at The Electric Palace, Bridport, this Christmas season.

Flying into Bridport with "Peter Pan" a sensational funny pantomime for all the family to enjoy. Without a doubt one of the best Pantomimes you will see for miles around. With spectacular scenery, sensational choreography, a magical and musical score with popular modern song choices throughout and some sensational flying sequences that your children will treasure for years to come.

Sarah Jayne, executive producer of Peter Pan said "With last year's tour of Aladdin receiving such an amazing response from audiences throughout the UK, we are so pleased to bring Peter Pan to Bridport this season. Together with amazing special effects and stunning flying sequences, this year's professional pantomime is guaranteed to delight family audience's in Bridport over the festive season. The use of flying sequences is always so popular with audiences, and we are delighted that audiences of Bridport will see the magical moments, right in front of their very eyes."

A must see production this Christmas, so "HOOK" your tickets today, and

Free Christmas events at The Electric Palace

BRIDPORT'S Electric Palace is putting on free events this Christmas as a thank you to all the venue's loyal supporters.

New Elizabethan Singers' Spring Concerts in Lyme Regis and Bridport

THE New Elizabethan Singers will perform Brahms' "Ein deutsches Requiem" on consecutive Saturdays in February. "Ein deutsches Requiem" was Brahms' largest single work and his first work for chorus and orchestra. Deeply moving, profound and powerful, its status as one of the greatest monuments of choral music is unchallenged. It is meant primarily as a consolation for mourning survivors, but also contains much hope and blessing for the departed. The closing section of the sixth movement is among his grandest creations. The work was probably inspired by the death of his mother in 1865.

The first performance features a four-handed piano accompaniment and will be given in St. Michael the Archangel Church, Lyme Regis, on February 7th, starting at 6pm. The choir will be joined by two well known local soloists. Chloe Stratta (soprano) from Lyme Regis graduated from Manchester University in 2013 with a 1st in Music. Daniel Rudge (baritone) is originally from Colyton. He read music at Goldsmiths, University of London and the Guildhall School of Music & Drama and has spent the past year singing with Glyndebourne Chorus and Garsington Opera.

Tickets (£8, under 18s free) will be available on the door.

The second performance will be in St Mary's Church, Bridport, on February 14th, starting at 7.30pm. This time the Singers will be accompanied by a full orchestra and joined by two professional soloists. Abbi Temple (soprano) has been a firm favourite with NES audiences for several years. Andrew Thompson (baritone) is a Lay Clark at the Chapel of St. George's, Windsor and is making his second visit to Bridport.

The choir will also sing Brahms' "Geistliches Lied" and selections from Bruckner's Motets, while the soloists will present their own favourites.

Tickets (£12, under 18s free) are available from Bridport Music and Goadsby, both in South Street, Bridport.

FESTIVE Television & FILM

A preview of festive TV and Film
by James Coles

LOOKING for something to idle away the time whilst you're letting all those turkey sandwiches and Christmas chocolates go down? Look no further. The usual offering of endless repeats, inane rubbish and, yes, a spattering of TV gold is here.

Starting with, as we often do in our Festive View TV guide, Doctor Who – Peter Capaldi is now and well truly established at the TARDIS controls but there are rumours aplenty that this year's Christmas special could see the final appearance of long-term companion Clara (Jenna Coleman).

'Last Christmas' (Christmas Day, BBC1, 6:15pm) also features Nick Frost as a slightly cheerless Santa and Michael Troughton (son of Second Doctor, Patrick) as an as yet unknown character – could it be that he's reprising his father's role?

What exactly happened to the Top Gear team in Argentina will finally be revealed in their two-part Patagonia Special on BBC2 (December 27th, 8:30pm; December 28th, 8pm). The trio were supposedly chased out of the country after the locals took exception to a number plate one of their vehicles was sporting...

Dr Who: Last Christmas features Peter Capaldi, in his first Christmas as the Time Lord, tackling Santa and deadly aliens at the North Pole.

Still Open All Hours Love is in the air this Christmas for Mavis

COMEDY

Last Christmas' Open All Hours comeback has resulted in the show being given a brand new series, which kicks off on Boxing Day (BBC1, 6:25pm). Love is in the air during this first episode when Mavis receives a special delivery and Granville plays matchmaker.

Miranda comes to an end with two final episodes showing Christmas Day (BBC1, 7:15pm) and New Year's Day (BBC1, 8pm), with the title character having to decide between Gary and Mike's proposal.

Also reaching a finale is Not Going Out, with Lucy and Lee's 'will-they-won't-they' storyline coming to a head on Christmas Eve (BBC1, 9:30pm).

The curtain falls on Ricky Gervais' Derek on December 22nd (Channel Four, 10pm) with an hour long special. Hannah's preparing for her wedding and Vicki's getting ready to fill her shoes at the care home.

Rapidly becoming a Christmas staple as much as Only

Mrs Brown's Boys returns this Christmas Day and New Year's Day for two season episodes.

DRAMA

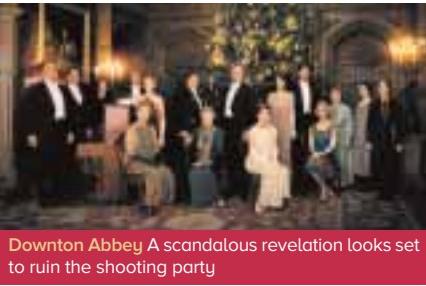

The Beeb have lined some real acting royalty for their New Year's Day adaption of Esio Trot. The 90 minute dramatisation of Roald Dahl's 1990 book stars Dustin Hoffman and Dame Judi Dench. It's the story of retired bachelor Mr Hoppy (Hoffman) and his attempt to win the heart of his neighbour Mrs Silver (Dench) but the small matter of a tortoise gets in the way.

There's a Christmas visit to Downton Abbey on Christmas Day (ITV, 9pm) where a scandalous revelation looks set to ruin the shooting party.

In a feature-length Call The Midwife (Christmas Day, BBC1, 7:50pm) Patsy and Chummy try to help two expectant teenagers in a mother and baby home.

Miranda Richardson heads the cast in a three-part 1930s comedy of manners – Mapp and Lucia (beginning December 29th, BBC1, 9:05pm). Also starring Anna Chancellor and Steve Pemberton, this is a story of social rivalry between two women after one rents the other's home for summer.

Anne Reid and Derek Jacobi return in a third series of Last Tango In Halifax on December 28th (BBC1, 9pm), which see Alan and Celia settling into their married life.

Downton Abbey A scandalous revelation looks set to ruin the shooting party 101 Dalmatians (1960) Disney animated classic where the evil Cruella De Vil kidnaps the puppies of Pongo and Perdita.

MOVIE PREMIERES

There are two Disney animated classics making their first appearance on terrestrial TV this Christmas, one of which has been waiting more than 60 years for that honour. When Cinderella (1950) was first shown in UK cinemas, there would only have been one TV channel – now there are literally hundreds. You can catch it on December 22nd (BBC1, 4pm), along with One Hundred and One Dalmatians (1960) on Christmas Eve (BBC1, 4:45pm).

Other premieres include Clint Eastwood as one OAP you wouldn't want to mess with in Gran Torino (December 21st, Channel 5, 9pm), Shrek spin-off Puss In Boots (Christmas Day, BBC1, 3:10pm) and Avengers Assemble (Boxing Day, BBC1, 8:30pm) where Marvel's finest team up to defeat Thor's evil brother Loki.

The Muppets comeback movie from 2011 gets its first terrestrial screening on December 29th (BBC1, 6:20pm), as does Christian Bale's second outing as the Caped Crusader in The Dark Knight on New Year's Day (ITV, 9pm).

Steven Spielberg's and Peter Jackson's Tintin collaboration is based on not one but three of the great Herge's stories, but it doesn't come across as much of a hodge-podge as it might have done. Judge for yourself when The Secret Of The Unicorn gets its premiere on New Year's Day (BBC1, 4:25pm). And keep your ear to the ground as to which book(s) will be the source for the film's inescapable sequel.

If you haven't seen it yet – and, if so, where have you been? – Daniel Craig's latest outing as James Bond comes to ITV on Christmas Eve. With less than 12 months before the release of Spectre, count the weeks with this first terrestrial screening of Skyfall (9pm).

Dustin Hoffman (also starring in the aforementioned Esio Trot the same day) made his directorial debut a couple of years ago with comedy drama Quartet. Starring Maggie Smith, Tom Courtenay, Pauline Collins and Billy Connolly, this delightful little film about a group of opera singers living in retirement make its TV debut on New Year's Day (BBC2, 9pm).

The Dark Knight Christian Bale's second outing as Gotham City's masked protector plots him against a new, menacing villain, the Joker.

Specialist Dementia Care in Exmouth & Devon

Give Your loved One The Gift Of A Fulfilling Life At Rose Lodge Care Home

Imagine the peace of mind you'll feel knowing that your loved one is getting the best possible care in a loving and understanding environment. Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

We offer DAY CARE, RESPITE CARE and RESIDENTIAL CARE and free trial days.

Please call Peter or Karen now on 01395 227071 to discuss your needs.

Mulled Wine

Preparation time Less than 30 mins

Cooking time Less than 10 mins

Serves 6

Ingredients

1 bottle red wine • 60g/2oz demerara sugar • 1 cinnamon stick grated nutmeg • 1 orange, halved • 1 dried bay leaf

Preparation method

1. Put the wine in a saucepan with the orange, sugar, bayleaf and the spices.
2. Heat gently until the sugar has dissolved. Taste to see if you want the wine sweeter, and add more sugar to taste.
3. Off the heat, stir in the sloe or damson gin if you are using it.
4. Strain into heatproof glasses and serve at once.

Chocolate Orange Cocktail

Preparation time 15 mins

Cooking time 10 mins

Makes 4 x 75ml glasses

Ingredients

100g golden caster sugar • zest of 1 orange or clementine grated dark chocolate, to decorate • 100ml vodka
100ml crème de cacao • 60ml orange syrup
40ml orange juice • ice

Preparation method

1. First make an orange syrup. Combine 100ml water with the golden caster sugar and the orange or clementine zest in a pan and bring to the boil. Cool and strain the syrup.
2. Chill 4 coupe glasses, then dampen the rims with a little water and dip in the grated dark chocolate. In a cocktail shaker, shake the vodka, crème de cacao, orange syrup and orange juice with ice (you may need to make in 2 batches). Pour into the glasses.

Father Christmas cupcake

Preparation time 30 mins

Cooking time 25 mins

Makes 12 cupcakes

Ingredients

For the Cupcake

200g Unrefined golden caster sugar
200g Butter (unsalted) softened • 3 eggs
200g Self-raising flour • 1tsp Vanilla extract

For the Father Christmas Topper

250g each of Sugar paste icing in red, chocolate, white & black • 60ml Water • Apricot Jam

Preparation method

1. Preheat the oven to 180°C (160°C fan, gas mark 4) and line a 12 hole cupcake tin with cases.
2. Cream together the butter and sugar until pale and fluffy, then add the eggs one by one mixing in well in between them and add the vanilla extract. Fold in the flour then spoon into the cases.
3. Place in the oven for 20-25 minutes or until golden and a skewer comes out clean.
4. To make the father christmas cake topper, use the red sugar paste icing and roll out a ball about 5cm in diameter then flatten the base. Next roll out a sausage about 10cm long and 1.5cm diameter for his arms and finally make a cone shape for his hat and squash the pointed end over to one side.
5. Take some of the white icing and a little of the red and roll them together until the red blends in to give you a pink colour for his head.
6. Next take some black icing and roll 2 small balls for eyes, 2 larger balls for his gloved hands and then roll out a little for a belt.
7. To assemble, use a little water to glue the black belt onto the red body. Next finish the arms by attaching the black hands to the ends of the red 'sausage' shape. Then roll out some of the white icing until it is around the end of the arms for his cuffs, using some water to glue. Then cut the arms leaving a diagonal edge. Attach these using a little water, squashing the arms around the body.
8. Next make a small ball using the white icing for a pom pom and attach to the top of the hat.
9. To finish, cut a disc of white icing and cut out a small edged piece for his beard, and 2 smaller pieces for his moustache. Make a small ball using red icing for nose. The attach 2 small balls of white icing and small black icing balls for his eyes.
10. To decorate your cupcake, roll out some chocolate icing and cut into discs, place this on the cake using some warm apricot jam to stick. Then place the jolly father Christmas on top.

Christmas Pudding

Preparation time Overnight

Cooking time 2 hours

Ingredients

350g/12oz mixed dried fruit (raisins, currants, sultanas)
100g/3½oz pitted ready-to-eat prunes, chopped or left whole
100g/3½oz dark muscovado sugar • 4 tbsp dark rum
100ml/3½fl oz stout • 100g/3½oz chopped walnuts
100g/3½oz blanched almonds • 100g/3½oz ground almonds
100g/3½oz fresh white breadcrumbs • 50g/1¾oz plain flour
100g/3½oz frozen butter, grated, plus a little extra for greasing
½ tsp freshly grated nutmeg • 1 tsp ground cinnamon
2 tsp mixed spice • 100g/3½oz chopped glacé cherries (or left whole if you prefer) • 3 large free-range eggs, beaten

Preparation method

1. Combine the mixed fruit, prunes, muscovado sugar, rum and stout in a mixing bowl. Stir well to mix, cover and leave for 24 hours to soak.
2. After 24 hours, mix the walnuts, almonds, ground almonds, breadcrumbs, flour, butter, spices, cherries and eggs along with the soaked fruit mixture in a large mixing bowl, making sure you include all the soaking liquor from the soaked fruit. Mix well until completely combined (let all the members of the family have a stir and make a wish).
3. Cover with cling film and leave to stand in a cool place for 24 hours.
4. After 24 hours, grease a 1.2 litre/2 pint pudding basin with butter. Cut a circle of baking paper and place into the bottom of the pudding basin and then grease it with a little more butter. Pack the pudding mixture into the pudding basin, pressing as you add it. Fold a pleat into the middle of a large piece of baking paper and place over the pudding. Cover with a large piece of pleated foil, ensuring the pleats are on top of one another. Secure tightly with kitchen string tied under the lip of the pudding basin.
5. Place an upturned saucer into a large saucepan one-quarter full of water. Fold a long piece of foil into quarters lengthways to create a long strip and place the pudding basin in the middle of the strip. Bring the sides of the strip up the sides of the pudding basin and lower into the saucepan. Ensure the water in the saucepan comes one-third of the way up the side of the pudding basin, but nowhere near the top of the basin. Leave the ends of the foil strip hanging over the side to make it easy to remove the pudding later.
6. Bring the water to the boil and then reduce the heat to a gentle simmer. Simmer gently for 5-6 hours, topping up the water level as necessary throughout cooking (do not allow the pan to dry out).
7. Once the pudding is cooked, remove from the pan and set aside to cool. The pudding can be stored for up to two years in a cool, dry place. To serve, reheat the pudding by steaming again (in the same way) for two hours, or until hot all the way through. Alternatively, remove the foil and reheat in the microwave.

Egg Nog

Preparation time Less than 30 mins

Cooking time Less than 10 mins

Serves 4-6

Ingredients

1140ml/2 pints whole milk • 6 free-range eggs
50g/2oz caster sugar • 1 vanilla pod, split
20 fresh cherries, stones removed and halved 200ml/7fl oz brandy • cocoa powder, for dusting

Preparation method

1. Place the milk, eggs, sugar and vanilla pod in a medium pan and heat gently, without boiling, until the mixture thickens enough to coat the back of a spoon.
2. The egg nog can be chilled at this stage or served hot.
3. To serve, scatter the cherries in the bottom of each serving glass. Divide the brandy between the glasses and pour the egg nog over. Dust with cocoa powder and serve.

Mince Pies

Preparation time 30 mins to 1 hour

Cooking time 10 to 30 mins

Makes 12 pies

Ingredients

350g high quality mincemeat, preferably homemade 200g plain flour, sifted • 40g golden caster sugar 75g ground almonds • 125g unsalted butter, diced 1 large free-range egg, beaten • milk, to glaze

Preparation method

1. Lightly butter a 12-hole pie or patty tin. Tip the mincemeat into a bowl and stir so that the liquid is evenly distributed.
2. Place the flour, sugar, almonds and butter in a food processor and process briefly until resembling breadcrumbs, then slowly add the egg through the feeder tube.
3. Bring the mixture together with your hands, wrap in cling-film and chill for an hour or so. Thinly roll out the pastry on a floured surface. Cut out 12 circles with a fluted pastry cutter, large enough to fill the base of the prepared tin. Press gently into each hole, then fill with the mincemeat.
4. Cut out another 12 slightly smaller discs/shapes and use to cover the mincemeat. Press the edges together to seal. Make a small slit in the top of each, then brush lightly with milk. Chill for about 30 minutes. Meanwhile, preheat the oven to 200C/400F/Gas 6.
5. Bake the pies for 20 minutes until golden brown. Remove to a wire rack and serve warm.

HOUSING MARKET ODDITIES

THERE are often many statistics being published about property prices – selling prices, asking prices, increases and decreases, month on month, year on year and so on. Sometimes the figures agree and sometimes they completely contradict each other. The reality is often similar in that it varies hugely from area to area and it is virtually impossible to make a sweeping statement that applies to the whole country or even just to the south west. For instance, this year, we saw a vibrant first quarter with mortgages being granted a little more readily and a return of first time buyers (a rare commodity in these parts). We expected a ripple upwards in the price ranges in terms of what was selling (as all this activity began at the lower end) and probably would have seen that happen except for one thing. The government was concerned about the London market causing a new housing bubble and so new mortgage regulations were brought in at the end of April. The new rules meant that anyone wanting a mortgage had to be very much more specific about their monthly outgoings (how much you spend on fuel, groceries, hair cuts, gym membership etc.). This resulted in many applications being refused (even in some cases where applicants were paying more in rent than their mortgage repayments would be). Sales began to fall through because of this and mortgages dried up again. The effect of this was felt by us almost immediately and did eventually have the intended results on the London market too, which began slowing down in August. The Autumn was slow but we saw an unexpected amount of activity in November thankfully, which gave us a slightly better end to the year. During most of this time, when the more rural areas were sluggish, some pockets were still very vibrant indeed. Exeter in particular seems to have done well and enjoyed good levels of activity throughout the year. It is a shame that more people are not willing to look a little further afield. Our local small towns and villages have some lovely properties to offer, whether you are looking for a period cottage or a family home, it can all be found here along with many strong local communities and beautiful surroundings. The new stamp duty rules have offered a small helping hand to buyers, who in some cases will save £5,000 on their purchase. This could mean that we have an early spring in terms of buyer activity as it will no doubt slow down towards election time. Therefore, if you are thinking of selling next year, it may be best to seek out your local agent for advice earlier than you might expect. The first quarter could be the best time to sell in 2015. In the meantime, for the buyers out there, many interesting properties remain on the market and with the savings in stamp duty, maybe January will be the time to take a look at that property you have been watching for the last couple of months and make an offer!

Well, it's been an exciting end to an otherwise sluggish year in our little corner of the property market. After a slow summer and early Autumn, November proved to be one of the best months of the year. Now, we have had a most unexpected revision of stamp duty charges by the chancellor, which has already benefitted many buyers in the past week and will benefit many more in the coming months and years. No longer will there be an impasse on properties priced at £250,001 to £270,000 as the saving under the new scheme for this price range is in the region of £4,000. The same applies to properties just above the £500,000 mark as most will see a saving of some sort. After many years of campaigning and hoping, we finally have a better system. We hope that this will help kick-start activity in the New Year. The other major change that is coming in January is the appearance of a new property portal (not another one, I hear you shout?) Well this one will be different and you will quickly see evidence of the support for it towards the end of January. Look out for more press releases and check out www.OnTheMarket.com. Finally, we would like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year!

New 367ps Audi RS 3 Sportback Goes Back To The Future

▲ Return of the Audi RS 3 Sportback

WHEN world-beating car meets class-conquering engine, the formidable result is the all new 367PS Audi RS 3 Sportback. The DNA for the world's most powerful series production premium compact hatchback comes courtesy of the A3 hatchback – the 2014 World Car of the Year – and the latest evolution of the evocative 2.5-litre five-cylinder TFSI – the International Engine of the Year in the 2.0 to 2.5-litre category. Enhanced by latest generation quattro all-wheel-drive, these genes create a car with truly exceptional dynamic capabilities, but one which can also deftly handle everything that daily life throws at it.

"There is a long tradition of five-cylinder engines at Audi," says Prof. Dr. Ulrich Hackenberg, Board Member for Technical Development at AUDI AG. "In the 80s, they turned Audi into a sporty brand, both in motor sports and in production. The new Audi RS 3 Sportback features the latest generation of our 2.5 litre, five-cylinder engine – the most powerful production engine in the modular transverse matrix."

Due to become available in the UK in March 2015, and expected to reach its first owners here next summer, the extreme high performance hatchback bolsters the 367PS output from its 2.5-litre

TFSI with 465 Nm (343.0 lb-ft) of torque, which is available right from 1,625rpm through to 5,550rpm, enabling it to punch vigorously at the horizon in any gear and at virtually any speed.

Lighter, faster, more efficient

Helped by advances in construction processes and material use made as part of the Audi ultra efficiency programme, the successor to the original RS 3 Sportback weighs in 55kg lighter, tipping the scales at 1,520kg (without driver), despite additional equipment and safety features. Against the clock its resulting power-to-weight ratio of 241PS per ton helps it to clear the 62mph marker from rest in just 4.3 seconds, and to continue to an electronically governed 155mph top speed which, for drivers with regular Autobahn access, can be increased on request to 174mph.

The distinctive rhythm of the 1 - 2 - 4 - 5 - 3 five-cylinder ignition sequence – the classic Audi soundtrack played out since the 1980s by rally cars, touring cars and production models such as the Ur quattro, the RS 2 and the TT RS – washes over the cabin as the new RS 3 Sportback gathers momentum. Two flaps in the exhaust pipes control the exhaust flow to provide for an even more intensive sound experience that varies with engine load and speed, and the driver can control these flaps via the Audi drive select adaptive dynamics system, which is standard. For the first time in an Audi model at this level, the already fittingly bass-heavy RS exhaust system can be replaced at extra cost by an even richer-sounding sports exhaust upgrade.

In the latest edition of the classic engine increased power and torque goes hand in hand with improved efficiency, which is confirmed by its compliance with the latest EU6 emissions regulations. According to the NEDC consumption test the new 'entry level' RS model is capable of returning up to 34.8mpg, corresponding to CO₂ emissions of 189g/km. A recuperation system, a demand-controlled oil pump and a newly developed start-stop system which turns off the engine shortly before the car comes to a stop contribute to this impressive data.

A seven-speed S tronic transmission, which has been reworked to offer even faster shifts, directs the power to the quattro permanent all-wheel drive system. The quattro system features torque vectoring based on intelligent software and is designed with maximum driving enjoyment foremost in mind. Its central component is an electronically controlled, hydraulically activated multi-plate clutch, the weight of which has been reduced by 1.4kg as further evidence of the adherence to the principles of Audi ultra throughout the car.

Magpies collapse once again

Dorchester Town 3 Paulton Rovers 4

Calor Premier - att: 286

FOR the second week running Dorchester threw away victory when they conceded two goals in the final minutes.

Leading 2-0 at the break, the visitors pulled a goal back on 55 minutes but the Magpies restored their two-goal advantage just after the hour and looked to be on their way to a valuable win.

However, Rovers scored a second with ten minutes left, and in almost a replica of last week's defeat at St Neot's, Jordan Walker equalised with a minute of normal time remaining before Scott Brice scored the winner three minutes into added time against his former club.

Dan Smith, whose brace put the county town two up in the first half, showed his form after just six minutes when he finished a run with a 20-yard shot that fizzed past the post.

He then set up Mason Walsh soon after, but a defender just managed to deflect the AFC Bournemouth loanee's shot for a corner.

Paulton's first effort on goal almost brought a goal when Brandon Barnes' 20-yard free kick curled just wide.

Smith gave Dorchester the lead just before the half hour when he beat a couple of defenders and fired a low shot beyond keeper Kyle Phillips and into the corner.

He added a second five minutes later after Nathan Walker got a touch to Walsh's cross and Smith was on hand to drive home from 12 yards.

Walsh should have added a third just before the break when Smith's cross found the winger alone at the far post, but he fired wide from eight yards.

The visitors started the second half with intent and Darren Jeffries almost pulled one back within 70 seconds of the restart but his spectacular volley from Scott Wilson's cross whistled just the wrong side of the upright.

However, they scored on 55 minutes when Chris Dillon's valiant attempt to clear produced a goalmouth melee and Dean Evans drove the ball home.

Walsh then made up for his first half miss by restoring the two-goal lead on 62 minutes when Smith set him free and he neatly fired a left foot shot just inside the far post.

Jamie Gleeson then stung Phillips' hands with a thunderous 30-yard shot, and Smith fired over from on the angle after a Matthew's flick-on.

Dorchester looked in control at this time playing with confidence and control, but Paulton put themselves back in the game with ten minutes remaining when Evans and he lashed the ball home past an unsighted Alan Walker-Harris.

Rovers pressed looking for and equaliser and, with just a minute left, Wilson got the slightest touch from Barnes' corner to head the equaliser.

Incredibly Dorchester conceded the winner three minutes into added time when Brice firmly headed home off the inside of the far upright.

Scrum down - rugby round-up

Encouraging aspects despite heavy defeat

Lytchett Minster 2nd 61Dorchester 3rd 0

WITH a bare 15 and inexperienced players making their debuts some in unfamiliar positions due to unavailability, Dorchester found some encouraging aspects as Lytchett got revenge for their defeat in the reverse fixture when the Gladiators were reduced to 14 players for most of the match.

Lytchett had retained their solid pack from the first game, but had also added several younger players in their backs, and had substitutes, so were altogether more balanced than on the previous occasion.

Despite total dominance from the start by Lytchett it took them 20 minutes to finally break down a resolute Dorchester defence.

From the restart, a good line by the home receiver beat the defenders for an immediate second score.

However, Dorchester recovered, and started to win some possession of their own, taking play up towards Lytchett's 22. Play was fairly even, with Lytchett finally scoring again near the end of the half to lead 19-0 at the break.

This did not appear to be insurmountable, and Dorchester started the second half in an optimistic frame of mind.

As in the first half, there was a lot of defending to do early on, soaking up heavy pressure, but eventually the hosts scored again.

After this the defence started to lose cohesion, and although the visitors did manage to make progress towards the home lines on occasion, Lytchett's scoring rate increased.

Dorchester struggled on, determined to get at least one score back, but to no avail. Tired legs were unable to prevent the hosts scoring at will as the clock ticked towards full time.

Despite the heavy defeat there were some good aspects to take away.

many positives from the game

Dorchester's scrum, despite going backwards several times, managed mostly to keep their own ball; the lineout's functioned better than in previous games; Lytchett's driving mauls were usually stopped early; and when the backs managed to find a bit of space they were dangerous with ball in hand.

Simon Buckell, playing his first game for the Gladiators was named man of the match.

Next week the Gladiators are away to Swanage and Wareham 4ths, who will doubtless be keen to avenge the 13-0 defeat inflicted on their last visit to Dorchester.

Weymouth & District Table Tennis League

Budmouth A back to winning ways against depleted Triangle

THE sixth formers of Budmouth A got back to winning ways in DIVISION ONE in Week 8 after two consecutive defeats.

The task was made slightly easier given that Red Triangle could only manage to put out two players for the match which meant an automatic 9-0 start before Tom Cherry smacked that 12-1.

Tony Reed hit back with a win over Lily Cherry before she beat Mick Spracklen and then Sam Millar won two legs against Reed and Spracklen to make the match safe.

Triangle finished strongly with Reed beating Tom Cherry and then partnering Spracklen to victory in the doubles but the initial deficit proved crucial.

YMCAs notched up their second win of the season in a closely contested match with Shipton Gorge A.

In a match where all six players won at least one singles leg each, this one went down to the final doubles contest. Jon Cox starred for YMCAs, winning all three of his singles matches - doing it the hard way as all were gruelling five setters and he also had to come from 1-2 down in all three of them.

Going into the doubles, Shipton Gorge needed a 3-0 win to draw the match but Cox teamed up with Ken Brake to yet again other five set win over Edwards and her partner Gil Roberts, once again coming from 1-2 down.

The other match in the Division saw Wyke M score a more comfortable win over Colliton X.

John Ryan registered wins in all of his singles matches for Wyke and also the closing doubles with David Avenell.

The score line, however, flattered Wyke a little with all but three of the legs going to four or five sets but they got the better of a majority of them to run out 27-12 winners.

In a full week of fixtures in DIVISION TWO there were wins for Budmouth's B and C teams, Colliton and Shipton Gorge B.

Budmouth B's 23-15 victory was nip and tuck for the first half of the match but turned when Ben Graham beat Derek Shilliday 3-0 and Brad Burroughs followed that up by sneaking a 13-11 fifth set victory over Roger Lovell.

Simon Green then beat Graham's dad, Daren, before Burroughs and Graham rounded the win off by overcoming Shilliday and Green in the final doubles leg.

Once again, the score line in Budmouth C's win over Springfield A does not really reflect the competitiveness of the match.

Both Jamie Blair and Moses Lewis won their three singles matches with James Green chipping in with two for the in-form youngsters.

Lewis came from two sets down to overcome Steve Rook in five sets and Green's only loss was to the same opponent also to the same 3-2 score line.

Rook then overcame Green again and got a little revenge on Lewis by teaming up with Pete Anderson to win the doubles but Budmouth were already out of sight and ran out 26-15 winners.

Colliton C drew level with Preston C after they beat them 24-14. Peter Loakes scored two 3-1 and a 3-0 win in his singles matches to give Colliton the edge.

Dave Glanville won two of his matches, losing only to Loakes, for Preston plus the doubles with Dave Clegg, to give him a good personal total for the evening.

Division Two's final match saw Brian Cammell lead Shipton Gorge B to victory over Preston B.

He won all three of his singles legs and was ably supported by his two partners, Peter Billingham and Graham Albertella, who both won two of theirs for a 24-14 win.

The week's closest match was at Shipton Gorge where their C team lost out 19-20 to table topping Wyke D.

This was an absolute cracker with the scores being tied at 17-17 going in to the deciding doubles rubber.

The first six legs were shared before Dan Corren and Graham Robertson of Shipton Gorge beat Rod Wyness and Roger Walden respectively to give them a 17-14 lead with one singles and the doubles leg to be played. Tony Dobbs then beat Tom Baldry 3-0 to level the tie and leave it tantalizingly balanced.

Fittingly the doubles went the distance with Walden and Dobbs digging out a 3-2 win over Corren and Robertson to seal victory.

The only other match in DIVISION THREE gave Budmouth E a 24-10 win over Dorset Youth Service B.

April Heasman and Snigdha Maganti both won their three singles matches and also paired up for a doubles win with Erin Stow also winning her opening leg against Mick Hogben.

Martin Singer and Richard Wood scored the Youth's only leg wins on a night dominated by the young ladies of Budmouth.

Weymouth Basketball

Raiders maintain fine unbeaten home record

Weymouth Raiders 87 Devon Peelers 53

AFTER two matches on the road, Weymouth Raiders returned home to defend their unbeaten home record in Exeter & District Men Division Two, and with the Peelers only able to muster six players, it was not too difficult.

The Raiders started well in the first quarter taking advantage of their player advantage; coach Craig Sorrell instructing all players to run the fast break where possible; and this proved to be the best tactic.

Jeff Robertshaw racked up an impressive 12 points with Max Gilmartin scoring back-to-back three pointers to take his points to ten, to give a 30-5 lead at the end of the first quarter.

But Weymouth's tempo appeared to have reduced with the Peelers winning the second quarter with 17 points, reducing the deficit to 44-22 at half time.

The second half started with MVP Piotr Lason making three three-point shots and multiple shots from outside the key and putting up an impressive 17 points throughout the quarter.

Dan Park also stepped up the tempo making multiple steals and completing the fast break lay-ups giving the Raiders a very one-sided lead of 35 points lead going into the final quarter.

They maintained their control against a very tired looking Peelers team to secure a solid victory.

SCORERS/ROSTER: Piotr Lason 29, Jeff Robertshaw 18, Dan Park 14, Max Gilmartin 12, Scott White 4, Jack Speary 4, Ben Stoekey 4, Jamie Dixon 2, Alan Ridout, Tom Storey.

Bandits fail to tame Tigers

TORBAY TIGERS 82 WEYMOUTH MISSION FITNESS BANDITS 60

Weymouth Bandits travelled to Torbay who are currently sitting in second place in Exeter & District Men Division One, and looking like the strongest in the league with only one loss.

The day didn't start well for the Bandits as again sickness and unavailability struck, leaving them shorthanded.

The game started with Tigers pushing at a ferocious pace, which took the Weymouth by surprise, and they struggled to compete.

They changed the defence slightly and this slowed the game and allowed the Bandits to at least trade baskets with the Tigers and end the first quarter 17-10 down.

Even the Bandits were down on points, they were not disheartened as both Jake Kinder and Chris Canham scoring long-range efforts.

They changed the offence with emphasis on inside plays to MVP Joel Franks, Ian Manley and Andy Steel; the three of them combining with some strong rebounds and under the ring plays to outscore Torbay; although Weymouth still trailed at half time.

The third quarter started with a different energy from the Bandits. Great rebounding from Vitoldas Balciunas and Rob Legg formed a platform to push on from, with Kinder and Canham again scoring long-range efforts. Torbay fell flat with no response bringing Weymouth to within five points of the home team.

However the comeback slowed and substitutions followed but unfortunately the Tigers fought back to lead by 13 points at the end of the quarter.

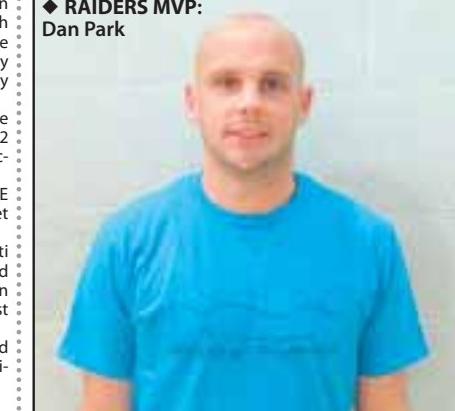

Balciunas and Steel once more showed their strength to pull off some good offensive rebounds as the scoring slowed for both teams in the final quarter as fatigue set in.

The Bandits did get within six points of Torbay but unfortunately the home side changed their system which stifled any sort of offence Weymouth had in return, and closed the game out.

SCORERS/ROSTER: Ian Manley 14, Jake Kinder 11, Chris Canham 11, Vitoldas Balciunas 11, Joel Franks 9, Andy Steel 4, Rob Legg.

Hawks go nap after fruitless start

OPMA 0 West Dorset Hawks 5

HAVING made the long trip to Truro the week before, the Hawks were on the road again to play bottom side OPMA in Plymouth.

Despite playing well the Hawks were frustrated not to convert a host of early chances in the first half.

But Mike Thompson and Steve Mearing always looked a threat up front, and eventually Thompson won a short corner that was executed superbly for Mearing to open the scoring.

Soon after Thompson won another short corner which he skilfully converted to give West Dorset breathing space. Another short corner just before the break saw Alex Davies add a third.

After the break OPM raise their game again but the Hawks defence withstood their assault, with keeper Tom Lowe making some great saves.

Having rode their luck they managed to put the game to bed with two goals from Mearing in open play for a comfortable win.

Although the forwards scored the goals, praise should go to Steele and Goodfellow for their work rate and for linking well with the rest of the team.

The result sees West Dorset move up to third, although Bude, their next opponents in the group, have a game in hand.

Coombes double chokes Chard

WEST DORSET A 2 CHARD A 0

FOLLOWING last week's resounding 17-0 win over Sidmouth & Ottery D, West Dorset faced a tricky match at home against fellow promotion hopefuls Chard A whom they had already narrowly beaten 2-1 away on the first day of the season.

There was little to choose between the teams in the opening exchanges. However,

West Dorset were having the clearer scoring opportunities with both Bob Dormer and John Kellas being denied by some superb saves from the Chard keeper.

With the interval approaching, Chard were starting to enjoy more of the possessions as the hosts struggled to control the play in midfield areas.

Half-time gave West Dorset the opportunity to rejig their formation in order to try and regain the initiative, and with a bit more support in the middle of the pitch, they began creating the better chances.

The Chard keeper was having a great game but he was unable to stop the hosts taking the lead 15 minutes into the second half; Andrew Frampton and Russell Coombes linked up really well in the second half and caused Chard a lot of problems. Our defence was also rock solid today and limited Chard's attackers to only a few shots on target."

tween the keeper's legs from an angle.

Chard continued to push forward in an attempt to get the equaliser but they could find no way past the West Dorset defence.

The hosts secured the win with five minutes remaining when Kellas squared for Coombes to slot home from close range.

West Dorset had to soak up some late Chard pressure but held on to take the victory which sees them stay second in South East 2.

Captain Henry Middleton said "This was a really enjoyable match to play in as both teams had a really good go at each other and we were just able to edge it in the end.

"Andrew Frampton and Russell Coombes linked up really well in the second half and caused Chard a lot of problems. Our defence was also rock solid today and limited Chard's attackers to only a few shots on target."

Colfox class shows through once again

ONCE again The Sir John Colfox School cross country teams showed their strength by taking the majority of the titles in the third and final race in this year's South West Dorset Schools Cross Country Championships which they hosted.

Overall team and individual positions were based on a points system with only those schools or athletes that had competed in all three races qualifying for the overall title, although awards were given for each of the races.

However it was St Osmund's Maddy Johnson that took the individual title.

Colfox's Tom Crabtree recorded a hat trick of victories in the Junior Boys race, the only individual to do so, and despite missing a few of their strongest runners, the team also remained unbeaten and took the overall title as well.

A very strong Inter Boys Woodroffe team threatened to halt Colfox's team dominance, the hosts having to win or finish second to guarantee a win overall.

In the end they had to settle for second and a share of the title with Woodroffe.

Colfox's Dane James took the individual award, which also came down to the last race and an exciting sprint finish at the end.

Woodroffe's Inter Girls however took the team title from Colfox who performed as well as can be with limited numbers and training, where Thomas Hardy's Flora Johnson won the individual title.

The organisers would like to thank A.P. Chant for sponsoring the event and Ash-

Spartans walk off!

Senior League

THE Baltic House could have gone back to the top of the league, but they lost for the second time this season, this time 4-2 against Piddlethorpe Spartans with their marksmen being Ethan Devaney and Phil Anderson.

Meanwhile, Nick Trivett scored both goals as South Cheriton moved into the top three with a 2-1 win against Sturminster Newton Utd.

Dorchester Sports drew 4-4 at Wimborne United and stay midtable.

Division One

THE game between Canford Utd and Piddlethorpe Spartans Res lasted only 43 minutes when bottom side Spartans decided to walk off after having a second player sent-off, leaving the referee no choice but to abandon the game.

With Stourpaine on County Cup duty the Kangaroos took the chance to move to the top on goal difference following their 3-1 win at Poundbury Rovers. Jordan Butler scored the consolation goal.

Division Two

STRUGGLING Portesham Utd lost 2-0 at home to second placed Boscombe Polonia.

Division Three

MAIDEN Newton & Cattisstock went down 2-0 at leaders Stickland Utd, whilst Portland Town Res moved up a place after their 4-2 win at Puddletown with goals from Alex Counter, Robert Darch, Tommy Morris and Matthew Greening.

Division Four

FLEETLINE increased their lead at the top to six points following their 4-1 victory over visitors South Cheriton Utd Res with goals from Danny Hill, Dan Povey, Ashley Batchelor and an OG.

Division Five

A SAM Langtree strike and an own goal gave UFC Poundbury a creditable 2-2 draw at third placed Donhead Utd.

Bees punished for defensive errors

Shaftesbury Town 2 Bridport Reserves 0

IN a game of few chances, Bridport once more were beaten by defensive errors to leave them just sixth from bottom in the Dorset Premier League.

Missing several players and travelling to North Dorset with just 13 players, manager Robin Townsend adopted a 4-5-1 formation aware of defensive frailties in recent weeks that have resulted in goals being conceded.

On a terrible surface, the defensive demons reoccurred in the 14th minute when an unmarked Richard Bryant stooped to head home a free kick into the top corner of Jamie Fry's net.

The errors didn't stop there as after another period of sterile play, the hosts added a second again from a set play when Rob Froud was left unmarked by two Bridport players to head home a free kick from four yards.

The second half saw neither side create anything of note apart from a Jack Scovell effort, with both sides only mustering a handful of shots each in the entire game.

Townsend said: "We were short of personnel in every position, hence setting up defensively as we did. However the players were warned not to go to sleep on set pieces."

"The first one was perhaps a tad unlucky as his effort could have gone anywhere, but he was unmarked, and the second one was just a schoolboy error with two players marking the same man and allowing Froud a free header."

"The pitch was awful which didn't help either side, and we did improve a little in the second half but it was very disappointing."

Bridport too good for Parley

PARLEY 0 BRIDPORT YOUTH U18 3

BRIDPORT Youth U18 finished their 2014 fixtures with a comfortable victory away at Parley Sports on Sunday.

Their previous meeting had resulted in a 2-2 draw, with both Parley goals coming from headers, and for much of the first half the visitors were subjected to an aerial bombardment.

This time, however the defence stood firm while at the other end Olly Woodcock skipped through the defence just before half-time only to be pulled to the ground and Sam Tabner coolly despatched the penalty.

A five minute rally from the hosts at the start of the second half was again confidently resisted before good work from Cyrus Dobbs and Billy Jones, Jonah Ayunga broke through to make it 2-0.

The home team seemed to lose all hope as Bridport launched waves of attacks and, in a goal-mouth scramble, Ayunga scored his second to effectively finish off the game.

Manager Terry Warren said: "The first half was a bit scrappy with the ball in the air a lot of the time but as soon as we got it on the ground we completely dominated."

"We looked solid across the whole pitch and the opposition just couldn't break us down."

"At the end it was all a bit too easy but it's still nice to finish the year with a victory and a clean sheet."

Scrum down - Bridport rugby round-up

Bridport edged out by leaders again

Bridport 21 East Dorset 23

BACK in October, East Dorset beat Bridport in the cup by the narrowest of margins 12-15, and so the hosts were keen to make amends against the league leaders.

Bridport were first out of the blocks and early pressure led to a penalty for the hosts. In the absence of the injured Rory Greening, Freddy Woolner on his debut at senior level stepped up to secure the three points with no fuss at all.

East Dorset then enjoyed a productive spell, twice winning turnover ball and scoring two tries, the second of which was converted, but Bridport responded by winning three kickable penalties, two of which were converted by Man of the Match Woolner.

The visitors pressurised Bridport's defence into conceding an easily kicked penalty. As the play went to and fro a clearance kick from East Dorset went out on the full and from the resulting line out Mike Pibworth spun through several tacklers to score and excellent try that Woolner converted.

East Dorset once again fought back and won a turnover on the halfway line. Unfortunately tackles were missed and the visitors' centre galloped away down the line to score. The conversion was missed to end a very entertaining half with East Dorset leading 20-16.

The second half started as the first, with Bridport enjoying much of the possession and territory, and from a scrum well inside the visitors' 22, Mike Pibworth broke with the ball, and the supporting Dave Cutting had the pace to beat his marker to the line. The conversion was missed, but Bridport had the lead and the momentum.

Then, from a position of strength, and camped in the opposition 22, the hosts managed to concede a penalty and were driven up to the other end where they conceded another in front of the posts to clinch the win 21-23.

A disappointed Bridport could however, take satisfaction from taking the league leaders right to the edge.

Oakmedians U13 37 Bridport 17

THE team talk at halftime had a rousing effect on Bridport whose lack of tackling in the first half had given their opponents a head start.

However, they rallied in the second half, holding their own with tries from Corbin Newman (2) and captain Eddie Gale.

Bridport U12 42 Sherborne 7

THIS win was dedicated to teamwork generated during training sessions on Wednesdays and Sundays.

As a team Bridport secured the loose play from the break down and the forwards dominated.

Where in the past breakaway runs were isolated, the pack supported the runs and scored five of the six tries.

The dynamic Oliver Wills, who scored five tries was selected as MoM. While Reuben Jolliffe scored the other try before converting all six.

Bridport U11 20 Sherborne 50

WHAT a performance from Bridport, and what a difference a week makes: perhaps it was the return of George Found, Oliver Hansford-Harvey and Jack Tozer.

Bridport competed and tackled well against a good Sherborne team boasting three very strong runners, yet Bridport heads did not go down when they conceded the inevitable try.

Back down the field, Found, in his first game as captain touched down for Bridport.

Toby Gale and Found again, scored for Bridport, but Sherborne had the edge and won the game ten tries to four. Archie Smith thoroughly deserved his man of the match award.

Useful Purbeck points for Bridport mens team

BRIDPORT Mens A team had a fine win over WELLWORTHY in the Purbeck Trophy League.

Dave Roberts, Keith Brookes and Brian Rumble scored three early four counts on their way to a 24-14 win, whilst Bill Payne, Bob Taylor and Ivor Parker secured maximum points, winning 15-14.

John Block, David Aylott and Brian Pratt picked up point in the Over 60s league with a 18-18 draw at MOONFLEET, whilst Geoff Hansen, Mel Hargett and Keith Jenkins came from 9-1 down to be level 16-16 after 14 ends before dropping a seven count to lose 18-24.

Pamela Daters, Gill Hunt, Ann Turtell and Margaret Pestelle secured two points in the Ladies County League with a 15-13 win over BOURNEMOUTH A.

But Francis Hewett, Millie Meech, Pat Corrick and Margaret Clapp had a mountain to climb having found themselves 1-11 down after four ends, and although the matched their opponents over the remaining 17 ends, the damage was done as they lost 12-19.

Tae Kwon-Do

Success for Beviss and Richards at British Championships

BRIDPORT, Weymouth and Maiden Newton TAGB Tae Kwon-Do clubs enjoyed a very busy and successful November in which they picked up two titles.

Evan Beviss, Dave Jones and instructor Chloe Richards (a student at Lyme Regis club) attended the event held at the Worcester University Arena along with 1300 competitors.

Beviss was victorious, becoming British Champion in his division of individual sparring while Richards was awarded the title of British Ladies' Foot Destruction Champion as well as bringing home gold in the team sparring event.

Firstly earlier in the month, Steve Mines after lots of hard work was awarded his first degree black belt by Master Dew, 8th degree black belt.

Eighteen students also took their colour belt grading in Honiton. Everyone passed with Paul Dempster, Emily Clark and Charlie King being awarded with a plus pass, meaning they performed at a significantly higher standard than average. Scott Carver and Liam Thickett were given the esteemed A Pass, meaning they were outstanding.

◆ TWO Bridport students, Kat Law and Steve Phillips, got engaged during class; shortly after Phillips had been presented with his new belt; getting down on one knee instead of adjusting his belt!

See bridporttagb.co.uk or call Chloe on 07999 317673 about the club's free trials.

◆ NATIONAL CHAMPIONS: Evan Beviss and Chloe Richards

◆ WELL DONE: All the students with their new graded belts

Heroic display sees Terras earn Trophy replay

WEYMOUTH 1 HAVANT &
WATERLOOVILLE 1

FA Trophy Round One – att: 512
WEYMOUTH produced a superb performance in Saturday's FA Trophy First Round tie with Conference South side Havant & Waterlooville at the Bob Lucas Stadium to earn a replay despite being reduced to ten men following the dismissal of Jamie Laird in the 28th minute.

Should they be successful in Hampshire last night (Tuesday) they have received another home draw in the second round, this time against Conference Premier outfit Dover Athletic.

The Terras fell behind just after the hour but fought back to equalise four minutes through George Rigg.

It was Weymouth who came out the blocks fastest and Rigg saw his shot comfortably saved by Hawks keeper Ryan Young after skipper Stewart Yetton had made a powerful run.

However the visitors soon brought keeper Jason Matthews into the action, the player manager palming away Scott Donnelly's shot before saving from Josh Huggins.

Weymouth were reduced to ten men on 28 minutes when Laird brought down Nic Ciardini, and as last man, referee Steven Plane had no option but to red card him.

The Hawks put Weymouth under pressure but with Chris McPhee slotting into Laird's role the Terras defence held strong to go in goalless at half-time.

Matthews came to the rescue on 52 minutes with a good save after Ciardini broke through, but Weymouth hit back in a rare attack and Young was forced to turn Steve Colwell's curling effort for a corner.

Matthews saved from Ben Wright and Brian Stock volleyed over the top before the Hawks struck on 61 minutes.

McPhee couldn't control the ball quickly enough when it came to him after Matthews had parried Huggins' shot, and Bradley Bubb hooked the ball home.

However, Weymouth weren't to be denied, and they equalised four minutes later.

Calvin Brooks found Rigg who took one touch before firing an angled shot across Young high inside the far post.

Matthews then had to thwart Wright before Adam Kelly almost won it for Weymouth with a shot that was turned away from the top corner.
